TRANSPORTATION

12. Waiver of Development Impact Fee

Pursuant to Pima County Code Section 19.03.070, waiver of development impact fees for the following: Janise K. Ingram requests a waiver of the Roadway Development Impact Fee for the placement of a residential dwelling unit on property located at 25120 E. Low Lane, in the Rincon Valley Impact Fee Benefit Area. (District 4)

Priscilla S. Cornelio, Transportation Director, reported the development would not constitute a public interest and the applicant would not qualify for an Affordable Housing Waiver as the annual household income exceeded 80% of the median income within Pima County. She stated that staff recommended denial.

Janise Ingram addressed the Board and stated the roads she traveled were in Cochise County, she paid a maintenance fee for the roads to the homeowners association and that her parents, who were low income, planned to place a manufactured home on the property.

It was moved by Supervisor Carroll, seconded by Supervisor Miller and carried by a 4-0 vote, Supervisor Bronson absent, to waive the development impact fee conditioned upon the current specific use (size/type of unit and specific occupation) on the property, noting that a change of this specific use would make the fees due and payable.

25. CALL TO THE PUBLIC

The Chairman inquired whether anyone wished to address the Board.

The following individuals addressed the Board:

- Lee Aitken
- Ken Rineer
- Maddy Urken
- Molly McKasson

They offered the following comments regarding gun shows on County property:

- Consider having the Pima County Fair Commission provide new rules and regulations for vendors and security of the parking lot.
- Gun shows have been proven to be safe.
- The vast majority of gun owners are kind, loving people.
- Arizona law preempts county law, and the Pima County Fair Commission has no authority to override state law.
- It is unknown how many firearms are sold on County property to individuals who should not have them.
- Transactions at gun shows on County property should take place with licensed dealers.
- Pass a resolution to support Universal Background Checks.

Mary Ann Murphy spoke to the Board regarding safety hazards, water issues, drainage troubles and funding problems in Green Valley.

26. ADJOURNMENT
