PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, for 23 years, Jocelyn Cotter faithfully served the Salpointe Catholic High School community in many capacities, including registrar and administrative assistant to three development directors, and executive assistant to four presidents; and

WHEREAS, while always maintaining her professionalism, Jocelyn never missed an opportunity to support the varied activities of her five Lancer children – Kathleen, Lisa, Kevin, Amy and Colin; and

WHEREAS, she took more minutes, created more agendas, processed more mail, answered more phone calls, responded to more email, wrote more thank you notes, printed more copies, facilitated more mailings and answered more questions than any employee in the school's history; and

WHEREAS, Jocelyn always made time to help plan services of joy as well as sorrow for so many friends of Salpointe – her loving and compassionate heart could be felt in every funeral and event program she penned; and

WHEREAS, she always greeted everyone with a welcoming smile and a warm laugh and is respected and loved by generations of Salpointe friends, family and board members; and

WHEREAS, Jocelyn is referred to as the “glue that holds Salpointe together” and has accumulated so much vast knowledge that those she is leaving behind are frantic in their attempt to absorb all her priceless information; and

WHEREAS, Jocelyn is a role model as a daughter, sister, wife, aunt, mother, granny, colleague and friend, always putting her faith and family first;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Pima County Board of Supervisors hereby recognizes and celebrates the great contributions of Jocelyn Cotter upon her retirement from Salpointe Catholic High School, proclaiming Friday, November 1, 2013, to be:

“JOCELYN COTTER DAY”

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 15th day of October, 2013.

Chairman, Pima County Board of Supervisors

ATTEST:

Clerk of the Board
