Good evening and please send this to all decision makers on the council and management.

Number 27 on the upcoming board meeting notes says they want to increase the pay of the court administrator there. When Yvette was doing that job, she was only being paid like $60,000 the reasoning being it was a rural court with not a lot of cases.

It looks like from the AZ court website, cases have been going down every year so it doesn't make sense why they changed the position a few years ago to make $70,000 and now they want to change it again to over $90,000? In Ajo?

I think people need to be paid what they're worth but this makes no sense. If another court is taking over the court that sounds like a good thing and it also sounds like they'll have more resources, so why pay them more?

As a taxpayer in Ajo, I don't think this position should get paid more. If anything, $60,000 to $70,000 is good enough. Look at the case numbers and you tell me. I'd rather the court have some weekend or evening hours than paying the manger like $93,000.

Thank you, Benjamin
