Title:

Air Quality Hearing Board Membership Renewal

Introduction/Background:

Pursuant to A.R.S. 49-478 the Pima County Board of Supervisors shall appoint an air quality hearing board to serve in a quasi-judicial capacity regarding enforcement proceedings and other legal matters required by Arizona Revised Statutes (PC Code 17.04.180). The hearing board shall consist of five members who shall be knowledgeable in the field of air pollution control. One member shall be an attorney licensed to practice in this state.

Discussion:

Two current members of the air quality hearing board have their membership expiring at the end of October and therefore need to be renewed. The two members and their qualifications are below, Marian LaLonde is a licensed attorney practicing in Tucson, Arizona in areas of real estate, public and tribal lands, natural resources, mining, environmental renewable energy, corporations, tax-exempt organizations, and equine law. Ann Marie Wolf is on the Board of Directors of Sonora Environmental Research Institute, INC. A community-based organization that provides communities with methods to mitigate the effects of exposure to pollutants and environmental threats to their health.

Conclusion:

Ms. LaLonde and Ms. Wolf have served on the board in the past and continue to serve on the board. This is renewal of their current membership.

Recommendation:

Renew air quality hearing board membership for Marian LaLonde and Ann Marie Wolf.

Fiscal Impact:

No Fiscal Impact
