Dear Supervisors,

Elections concern all of us. There have been a number of issues brought to the board and dismissed as unimportant or that is not our area and we can not make an elected official be available to address public concerns. The last election had plenty of issues. If you have time to explore more concerns please read this ... <https://threesonorans.substack.com/p/19-votes-481-votes-267-billion-would>. There have been court cases to solve some of these issues, but 100% confidence has not been attained. Having clean voter rolls, proper ID requirements, and easy access are paramount to voter confidence. Having an oversight task force made up of county employees is rather dubious and probably quite costly as it will not be a voluntary position. If you are going to all the trouble why not make a task force of interested parties that have -0- financial attachments and invite the public to participate.
