Title: Vote Center Replacement Location for the Congressional District 7 - Special General Election

Introduction / Background: Arizona Revised Statutes §16-411(B)(4) requires the Board of Supervisors, in advance of Election Day, to designate polling places or vote centers for a Primary and General Election.

Discussion: The Board of Supervisors previously approved 59 vote center locations for the September 23, 2025 Special General Election on August 5, 2025. There has been one location change to the list. The Sells District Office is unavailable for use on Election Day and is being replaced with the 99 Cents Store building. All other locations for the Special General Election remain the same.

Conclusion: The replacement location for the Sells District Office will be used to serve the Sells community for the September 23, 2025 Special General Election.

Recommendation: Recommend the approval of the 99 Cents Store building to serve as a vote center for the September 23, 2025 Special General Election.

Fiscal Impact: The County will not incur any additional costs for use of the replacement facility. The facility agreed to provide their space at no cost.
