MEMORANDUM

TO: Honorable Chair and Board Members
Pima County Board of Supervisors

FROM: Melissa Manriquez, Clerk of the Board mm

DATE: May 14, 2025

RE: Petition for Relief of Real Property Taxes – Ajo Calvary Baptist Church

Pursuant to A.R.S. §42-11109(E), Ajo Calvary Baptist Church, filed a petition on April 22, 2025, for relief of their Real Property Taxes for Parcel Nos. 401-18-0130, 401-18-0140, 401-24-0710, 401-24-0720, 401-24-0730, 401-24-0740 and 401-24-0750 for tax years 2020 and 2021.

Parcel No.	Year	Redemption Amount
401-18-0130	2020 & 2021	$ 228.63
401-18-0140	2020 & 2021	$ 5,800.11
401-24-0710	2020 & 2021	$ 947.78
401-24-0720	2020 & 2021	$ 738.52
401-24-0730	2020 & 2021	$16,515.89
401-24-0740	2020 & 2021	$29,420.38
401-24-0750	2020 & 2021	$ 1,561.40
Total		$55,212.71

The Assessor's review indicated that had the affidavit been filed in a timely manner, the Assessor would have granted the exemption.

There is a pending foreclosure on this property and the Treasurer's Office indicated they would out to the investors to request they forestall any further action, given that the owner is currently pursuing a tax roll correction to abate the taxes. If the exemption is granted the investors would be entitled to a refund and interest.

Pima County Board of Supervisors:
~~To Whom It May Concern:~~

I am writing this letter humbly requesting the Board to take into consideration the following information when deciding our request for exemption and relief of the property taxes, penalties, and accrued interest for the years 2020 and 2021.

The church had been exempt previously, and I had filed all the necessary documents when I was made aware that the filing had been incomplete for years 2020 and 2021. I then submitted a request to approve the redemption of those years and received your approval. I then forwarded all necessary documents for said years and believed the issue was resolved.

However, the church just received Notice of Foreclosure notifying us the tax debt had been purchased and we have until May 16, 2025 before foreclosure proceedings will commence. My Pastor and I then came to the Assessor's office and spoke to Lisa Smith, who explained that the above mentioned approval was only to be delinquent for 2020 and 2021, not approval of tax exemption, and we needed to resubmit all the paperwork for your approval again.

It has clearly been my misunderstanding about said approval, but you will see that the church was approved every year prior and every year since, so I took for granted that I had done everything correctly.

Please forgive my misunderstanding and strike off the tax roll the property taxes and accrued interest and penalties for the years 2020 and 2021. You will find all necessary documentation needed included with this letter to make your decision.

Respectfully Submitted,

Catrina M Vargas

To Whom It May Concern:

It has been brought to my attention that Ajo Calvary Baptist Church has been remiss in filing both 2020 and 2021 affidavits for property tax exemption. I kindly ask that you consider approving our petition for redemption for those years as we are a non-profit religious organization that has maintained this filing status for many years.

I have prepared, and I am forwarding to the Assessor's Office, the required documentation qualifying the Church for exemption.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Catrina M. Vargas

EIGHTH: The names and addresses of the Incorporator is:

NAME	ADDRESS
Charles David Godfrey	200 E. Second Avenue Ajo, AZ 85321

NINTH: The name and address of the initial statutory agent of the Corporation is Eugene D. Reaves, 221 Eighth Avenue, Ajo, Arizona 85321. The address of the initial known place of business of the Corporation is 740 Rocalla Avenue, Ajo, Arizona 85321.

TENTH: (a) The Corporation shall indemnify, to the extent permitted by law, any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(b) The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of another Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

(c) To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Article, or in defense of any claim issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith).

(d) Any indemnification under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this Article (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in paragraphs (a) or (b). Such determination shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (2) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested Directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

(e) Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized in the manner provided in paragraph (d) of this Article upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf for the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this section.

(f) The indemnification provided by this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of disinterested Directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

ELEVENTH: No director of the Corporation including any person acting solely in an advisory capacity shall be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director; provided, however, that this Article shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director to the extent provided by applicable law for (i) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation; (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law; (iii) a violation of Section 10-2326 of the Arizona Revised Statutes, or a corresponding section of any future Arizona corporate code; (iv) any transaction from which the person derived an improper personal benefit; or (v) a violation of Section 10-2550 of the Arizona Revised Statutes, or a corresponding section of any future Arizona corporate code. The limitation of liability provided herein shall continue after a director has ceased to occupy such position as to acts or omissions occurring during such director's term or terms of office, and no amendment or repeal of this Article shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of the Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

Constitution and By-Laws

November 17 2004

Constitution

Preamble

We declare and establish this constitution to preserve and secure the principles of our faith and to govern the body in an orderly manner. This constitution will preserve the liberties of each individual church member and the freedom of action of this body in relation to other churches.

Article I Name

This body shall be known as Ajo Calvary Baptist Church of Ajo, Arizona.

Article II Statement of Purpose

Ajo Calvary Baptist church has been called by God to proclaim the Gospel in the world, by exalting the Savior, equipping the saints, and evangelizing the lost.

Article III Objectives

Under the leadership of the Holy Spirit we endeavor

1. To carry out the Great Commission
2. To reach out to our community
3. To love and encourage one another
4. To provide a place and atmosphere of worship
5. To work together with the unity of the body of Christ
6. To look for and long for the Second Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Article IV Statement of Faith

We affirm the Holy Bible as the inspired Word of God and the basis for our beliefs. This church subscribes to the doctrinal statement of The Baptist Faith and Message as adopted in 2000 by the Southern Baptist Convention. We voluntarily band ourselves together as a body of baptized believers in Jesus Christ personally committed to sharing the good news of salvation to lost mankind. The ordinances of the church are believers in baptism and the Lord's Supper.

APR 22 2005 10:55 PM CLK DE BB

Article V Church Covenant

Having been led as we believe by the Spirit of God to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God and this assembly most solemnly enter into covenant with one another as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit to walk together in Christian love an evangelistic outreach;

To strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort.

To promote its spirituality and prosperity;

To sustain its worship, ordinances, doctrines, and discipline;

To contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, and the relief of the needy, and the spread of the Gospel through all nations

We also engage to maintain family and personal devotions;

To educate our children in the knowledge and admonition of the Lord;

To seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances;

To walk circumspectly in the world;

To be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and above reproach in our lifestyle;

To avoid tattling, backbiting, spreading rumors, and excessive anger;

To use Scripture to combat the practice of abortion, homosexuality, the use of alcohol, the abuse of drugs, the spread of pornography;

To be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior;

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; To remember one another in prayer;

To aid one another in prayer; To aid one another in sickness and distress;

To cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and Christian courtesy in speech;

To be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation and mindful of the rules of our Savior to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage, that if we move from this place, we will as soon as possible unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

Article VI Polity and Relationships

The government of this church is vested in the body of believers who compose it. Persons duly received by the vote of the members shall constitute membership. All internal groups created and empowered by the church shall report to and be accountable only to the church. This church is subject to the control of no other ecclesiastical body. In so far as is practical, this church will cooperate with and support the Estrella Baptist Association, the Arizona Southern Baptist Convention, and the National Southern Baptist Convention. Necessary messengers may be elected annually.

By-Laws

Article I General

The membership, under the Lordship of Jesus Christ, reserves the exclusive right to determine who shall be members of this church and the conditions of such membership.

Article II Membership

Any person, who has accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior may offer himself for membership in this church. They shall be presented to the church during any regular worship service the following ways:

1. By profession of faith and upon baptism by immersion.
2. By promise of and upon receipt of a letter from another church for those who have fulfilled the requirements of #1.
3. By restoration, upon rededication to Jesus Christ and this church
4. By being an 'associate member.' A part time resident of our community may become an associate member while retaining membership in his home church as long as they agree to abide with Article IV Statement of Faith of the constitution. A separate roll will be maintained for associate members. They will have all privileges and responsibilities of fellowship except holding office. A majority vote of those present and voting shall be required to elect such candidates to membership.

Article III Termination of Membership

Membership shall be terminated in the following ways

1. Death
2. Dismissal to another church by letter
3. Membership in a church of another faith or denomination
4. Exclusion by disciplinary action of the church according to Article VII of the By-Laws.

Article IV Duties

Members are expected, under the lordship of Christ, to be faithful in all duties essential to the Christian life, and to attend regularly the services of the church, to give their tithes and offerings for its support and its causes, and to share in its organized work.

Article V Rights

Such members as are in good standing, sixteen years and older may act and vote in the transactions of the church, and may be considered for election to the offices of the church. Any active member of the church may request a special congregation meeting after conferring with the pastor or Chairman of the Deacon Body.

Article VI Inactive Members

An inactive member is a person who has not participated either personally or financially in this church's worship or ministries for a period of three months unless they are associate members or have a valid reason for non-participation. Such persons shall be placed on an inactive membership role. They shall be classified "not in good standing." They will not have voting rights until restored.

A member who has been placed on the inactive role can be reinstated by regular attendance at the regular services of the church for one month and being faithful in the carrying out of their responsibilities as a member. Regular attendance shall be interpreted to mean upon at least four regular services of the church in a month.

Article VII Discipline

The Bible clearly teaches that the church is to exercise discipline over its members. All offenses, whether personal or doctrinal will be handled according to Matthew 18:15-17

1. Go to the one who offended you, and tell them the offense. Allow time for repentance and confession
2. If there is no resolution, take with you one or two witnesses to establish that an offense has occurred. Allow time for repentance and confession.
3. If an offense was established and time has been given for repentance and confession, the pastor shall go to explain the serious nature of this process. If there still is no resolution the matter will be brought before the church at a meeting called for the purpose of church discipline. A majority vote of members present shall be needed to remove membership.
4. Restoration will be in accordance with Article II section 3 of the By-Laws.

Article VIII Officers, Teachers, and Committees

1. Officers- General

The scriptural officers of the church shall be the pastor and deacons. Other officers shall include trustees, clerk, treasurer, and any additional officers the church may select in order to carry out its New Testament program. All officers will be church members.

2. Pastor

- A) A pastor shall be chosen and given an indefinite call by the church. Whenever a vacancy occurs his election shall take place at a meeting called for that purpose, of which one weeks notice shall be given to members, by announcement in three regular worship services. The pulpit committee shall bring to the consideration of the church only one man at a time. Election shall be by secret ballot, an affirmative vote of 3/4 of those members present. A pastor qualifications must be in accordance with 1 Timothy Chapter 3: 1-7.

- B) The pastor is responsible for leading the church in functioning as a New Testament Church. The pastor will lead the congregation, the organizations, and the church staff in performing their tasks, and shall be an ex officio member of all the committees of the church. A major concern of the pastor is to perform pastoral responsibilities. The pastor is the leader of worship, proclamation, education and the pastoral ministries.
- C) The pastor may relinquish the office of the pastor by giving at least 30 days notice to the church at the time of resignation.
- D) No pastor shall ever be dismissed except when, and after, charges of a serious nature have been sustained by the church. No charges except of serious nature shall be brought before or considered by the deacons or before the church. Should serious charges be brought before or considered by the deacons or before the church, and not sustained, those making or responsible for such charges shall be disciplined by the church and the pastor shall be publicly exonerated.
- E) Should the deacons and the pastor agree that pastoral relationships can no longer be agreeably maintained:
  - 1 the pastor should resign as in C above
  - 2 If the pastor refuses to resign the deacons should call a special business meeting with the date, time and nature of the meeting given verbally and in the church bulletin on a Sunday prior to the meeting. A 3/4 vote of those voting would terminate the relationship immediately with one month salary. The terminated pastor will then have 30 days to vacate the parsonage.

3. Church Staff

This church shall call or employ such staff members as the church shall need. A job description shall be written when the need for staff members is determined. Vocational staff members other than the pastor shall be recommended to the church by the pastor and employed by church action.

The secretaries and custodians shall likewise be recommended to the church by the pastor and employed by church action.

In the event dismissal of a staff member is necessary it shall be the duty of the pastor to bring such recommendation to the church. If there is no pastor these duties will be assumed by the Chairman of the Deacon Body.

4. Deacons

- A) The Deacon Body shall consist of all ordained deacons in the church. These men will have been by 3/4 vote approved by the church to serve as deacons.
- B) Each man elected by the church will serve an indefinite term.
- C) Any new member of our church who has been ordained as a deacon in a Southern Baptist Church, and after having proved himself for at least 6 months in this church and having the approval by vote of the church in a regular business meeting, may serve on the Deacon Body.
- D) The Deacon Body shall prayerfully consider and interview any nominee for the position of deacon and present him to the church at any regular business meeting. The matter will be tabled until the next business meeting for consideration by the church before the final vote is taken. The vote shall be by secret ballot. Deacons approved by the church and have not been ordained will be ordained as soon as possible before the church.
- E) Qualifications for Deacons
  - 1. Will meet the criteria set forth in Acts 6:3-8 and I Timothy 3:8-13.
  - 2. Each deacon and prospective deacon will personally examine himself and weigh his life against the scriptural qualifications.
  - 3. They shall be the best spiritual leaders in the church
  - 4. They shall assist the pastor in carrying out the ministries of the church.
- F) The Deacon Body will elect their chairman, vice chairman, and secretary each church year and fill vacated offices as necessary. The deacons will meet monthly and more often as the need arises. A report will be given at the church business meeting.
- G) If the church has a pastor there shall be no meeting of the Deacon Body without his prior knowledge and, if possible, his attendance.
- H) The Deacon Body shall recommend to the church, policies and interpretations regarding the use of the church facilities by church related and non-church related groups.

5. Trustees

Three trustees, number may change by vote of the church, are elected by the church to hold in trust the church property.

The trustees will affix their signatures to legal documents involving the sale, mortgaging, leasing, and purchase of property, and the other legal documents where the signature of the trustees are required.

They have no power to sell, mortgage, lease or transfer any property without the specific vote of the church authorizing each action.

Trustees shall be elected annually on a three year rotation basis and may succeed themselves by election of the church.

Trustees shall serve as our Property and Grounds Committee.

The Church Property and Grounds Committee assists the church in the matters related to properties administration. This work includes maintaining church property for ready use, recommending policy regarding use of properties. The chairman of the trustees shall serve as the Statutory Agent.

6. Moderator

The pastor shall serve as the moderator and shall conduct business meetings of the church according to Robert's Rules of Order. The Chairman of the Deacon Body shall serve as moderator in the pastor's absence, or in the absence of both, the church clerk shall call the church to order and an acting moderator shall be elected. All questions shall be decided by majority vote of the members present.

7. Clerk

- A) Church elected clerk shall keep in a suitable book a record of all the actions of the church.
- B) Is responsible for keeping a register of the names of the members, with dates of admission, dismissal, or death and the dates of baptisms.
- C) Shall issue letters of dismissal voted by the church
- D) Preserve on file all communications and written official reports
- E) Give legal notice of meetings as necessary
- F) All church records are property of the church and will be kept in the church office.

8. Treasurer

- A) Shall be elected annually
- B) Shall receive, preserve, pay out as approved by the church all money or things of value paid or given to the church keeping at all times an itemized account of all receipts and disbursements.
- C) Shall see all envelope offerings or donated gifts shall be properly recorded and annual statements sent out.
- D) All donations shall be kept confidential
- E) Some of these duties may be assigned to another person to assist the treasurer.
- F) Upon rendering the annual account at the end of each fiscal year and its acceptance and approval by the church, the records will be delivered to the church clerk.
- G) Up to three people can be selected to sign checks. In the absence of the treasurer either of the other two may sign.
- H) Money counters to count the offering shall be appointed by the head usher to count and record the offering after each service. The treasurer shall not be one of these counters.
- I) Provide a monthly financial report at monthly business meetings.

9. Committees

The need may arise to establish a committee for a specific task. A committee may be established at any business meeting with a specific task and a specific time to complete the task. All committee members shall be presented to the church and elected by a majority vote of members present. All committee chairman shall be church members.

Finance Committee

The Finance Committee will have the responsibility of overseeing, developing, and recommending the fiscal policies and the budget to the ACBC. The committee will consist of the Treasurer and at least two Elected Church Members and not to exceed Four Church Members as determined by the church. One half of the Elected Committee shall rotate off the committee every two years.

Article IX Business Meetings

1. Regular business meetings shall be held on the second Wednesday after the first Sunday of the month.
2. Special business meetings may be convened by the pastor or in the absence of a pastor, by the Chairman of the Deacon Body when it is deemed necessary, and must be in the bulletin one week in advance and must be announced from the pulpit. They may also advance or postpone the regular business meeting if conditions warrant.
3. Business meetings shall be held at the church.
4. A quorum constitutes all active members present at a business meeting.

Article X Church Calendar

The church fiscal year shall run from September 1 to August 31. The annual business meeting, when elections will be held, and a budget approved shall take place at the September monthly meeting.

Article XI Non-Budget Expenditures

Any expenditures in excess of $200 and not authorized in the annual budget must be approved by the church.

Article XII Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the church, the trustees shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all liabilities, dispose of all the assets of the church by giving all assets to the Estrella Baptist Association. If they should not be able to receive the assets, only organizations that agree with our doctrinal statement and are classified as tax exempt according to Section 501 (c) (3) or corresponding provision of the Internal Revenue Code will be considered for receiving assets.

Article XIII Designated Contributions

All contributions made to specific funds or otherwise designated, are only suggestive and not mandatory, and shall remain subject to exclusive control and discretion of the church membership.

Article XIV Amendments

This Constitution and By-Laws may be amended by the following procedure.

1. Present written copies of the proposed amendment to members at any regular business meeting.
2. Proposed amendment will be tabled until the next regular business meeting.
3. Ratification of proposed amendment shall require a 3/4 majority of members present and voting.
