Thank you for again taking my email.

I would have appreciated to come to speak during public comment, but would have to leave Ajo very early and pay a lot in gas to make it to Tucson.

I am still opposed to increasing pay for the Ajo Court Manager. This still makes no sense in such a small court in Ajo. We have always wondered if they would close the court because of declining case numbers, but they have changed the salary for the manager tens of thousands of dollars in two years.

This topic was delayed, but there still is no answers about why they want to increase the pay even more.

I ask you please, look into the case numbers and tell us tax payers why this position deserves to be paid minimum 93,000.

I ask that you vote no.

Ben
