Title:

Designation of Vote Centers for the Congressional District 7 - Special Primary Election

Introduction/Background:

Arizona Revised Statutes §16-411(B)(4) requires the Board of Supervisors, in advance of Election Day, to designate polling places or vote centers for a Primary and General Election.

Discussion:

The Board is required to designate an adequate number of polling places or vote centers not less than twenty days before a Primary or General Election and at least ten days before a Special Election. The Elections Department has secured 58 vote center locations for the July 15, 2025 Special Primary Election.

The Board is being asked to approve the designated list of vote center locations. The list of locations will also be included in the sample ballots mailed to voter households in advance of Election Day.

Conclusion:

The list of vote centers for the Board's consideration will be used for the July 15, 2025 Special Primary Election.

Recommendation:

Recommend the designation of vote centers for the July 15, 2025 Special Primary Election as proposed.

Fiscal Impact:

Location fees totaling approximately $17,161.82 will be paid in advance using the Elections Department annual budget. Statutorily the State is required to reimburse for the Special Election.
