

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, on May 4, 2013, Tucson Youth Development and ReActivate New & Used Activewear hosted the third annual Cinco de Mayo Vida Sana/Healthy Life Celebration; and

WHEREAS, the focus of the event was to bring health and wellness awareness and information directly to at-risk youth and their families while maintaining valuable traditions and culture; and

WHEREAS, many of today's youth benefit greatly from information and resources to live healthy lifestyles; and

WHEREAS, the primary goal of the Vida Sana Celebration is to provide relevant informational and interactive activities in nutrition, fitness and overall health with achievable steps toward healthy lifestyles; and

WHEREAS, since its founding in 1965, Tucson Youth Development has helped more than 45,000 low-income and at-risk youths aged 14 to 21 and young adults in Pima County with innovative and successful educational, job-training and employment programs; and

WHEREAS, for the third year, Tucson Youth Development and ReActivate New & Used Activewear have partnered to plan this event, which ensures that youth are being provided with reachable steps toward healthy living,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Pima County Board of Supervisors hereby declares May 4, 2013, to be:

“VIDA SANA/HEALTHY LIFE DAY”

Passed and adopted this _____ day of _____ 2013.
