RE: Contract amendment to be considered at the Board of Supervisors Meeting April 14, 2015. The Amendment increases the contract amount and the services required. This is the second amendment to this contract. It does not change the term.

Contractor: Community Home Repair Projects of Arizona, Inc.

AMS ID: CT-CS-14-486 Amendment 2

Amendment Amount: $15,000.00 (increases original contract from $73,235.00 to $88,235.00)

Term End Date: 06/30/15

Funding Source: Funding is from the Arizona Community Action Association (ACAA) a state non-profit agency which manages private housing assistance funds on behalf of several Arizona utility companies. Additional funds are available in the current revenue contract with ACAA and there is a continuing need for repair services.

Purpose: To provide emergency home repair services for low-income families. The purpose of this amendment is to increase the contract amount and the number of services required.

Program Goals/Predicted Outcomes: The number of households to be served will increase from 141 to 154 under this amendment.

Public Benefit: Assists in alleviating poverty, revitalizing communities and empowering low-income families to become self-sufficient.

Metrics available to Measure Performance: CSBG required Results-Oriented Management and Accountability (ROMA) reporting.
