Following is my comment for the Board of Supervisors Meeting 7-5-22

Regarding the July 5 Addendum #3 Support Access for Reproductive Healthcare. Proposed Resolution #40

On July 24, 2022, The U.S. Supreme Court, by a majority opinion, correctly and finally placed choices for women's healthcare back to the sovereign States in the Union. Your misleading statements about women's healthcare at a future date may be repeated to the State of Arizona's elected officials who will make the decisions on behalf of the State. Unfortunately Sharon Bronson, you and the Pima County Health Department, continue to repeat and rely upon the mantra of the World Health Organization (WHO) regarding abortions and other health issues. You have forgotten all the lies WHO stated as fact regarding vaccines, boosters, masks in the recent Scam-demic for too many years. Why would we believe WHO and why would we believe you, other

Supervisors and the Pima County Health Department who want to discredit and ignore the U.S. Supreme Court and the laws of Arizona. Resolution #40 appears to set up for more handouts to non-government organizations to provide abortions sponsored by the Board of Supervisors with any money you can funnel into the Resolution. This resolution is just wrong, wasting more money, more committees, more bleeding liberal regressive ideas. NO
