

Proclamation

WHEREAS, our neediest citizens remain at risk of exploitation, abuse, neglect and medical needs. The Public Fiduciaries and their staffs are meeting the various and emerging needs of this endangered population in a wide range of settings; and

WHEREAS, the challenges presented by the incapacitated population are constantly changing and providing an ever more difficult environment; and

WHEREAS, the Public Fiduciaries of Arizona are constantly striving to improve their skills at providing the fullest and most protected lifestyle for the protected persons they serve; and

WHEREAS, the Arizona Public Fiduciaries are meeting in Pima County for their annual educational enrichment known as Boot Camp IV; and

WHEREAS, the Arizona Public Fiduciaries are an indispensable component in the safety and quality of life of incapacitated persons in Pima County and throughout the State of Arizona; and

WHEREAS, Pima County is honored and thankful that the Arizona Public Fiduciaries have come to this County for their annual program; and

WHEREAS, the Arizona Public Fiduciaries will be holding a three-day training session, Boot Camp IV, which will occur September 10-12, 2013, and will include seminars featuring Pima County and Arizona area professionals to improve the lives of the most challenged members of our community; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ramón Valadez, Chair of the Pima County Board of Supervisors, on behalf of the Board in its entirety, do hereby proclaim September 10, 2013, as

and urge all citizens of the County to join me in honoring the Public Fiduciaries and their staffs who manage the care of our most challenged and least supported citizens.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this _____ day of _____, 2013.

Chairman, Pima County Board of Supervisors

ATTEST:

Clerk of the Board
