Intergovernmental Agreement
For the Arizona Association of County School Superintendents

Effective Date: November 15, 2021

This Intergovernmental Agreement for the Arizona Association of County School Superintendents (hereinafter referred to as this "IGA") is entered into by and between those counties who sign this IGA and for which their county school superintendents wish to participate and join together and be called the Arizona Association of County School Superintendents. In this IGA, each county that enters into this IGA may be referred to individually as a "Party" or "county," and collectively the counties that enter into this IGA may be referred to as the "Parties" or "counties."

RECITALS

WHEREAS, county school superintendents operate through their respective counties and are designated as local education agencies for the purpose of serving as an education service agencies that are eligible to receive and spend local, state and federal monies to provide programs and services to school districts, charter schools, county free library districts, municipal libraries, nonprofit and public libraries, tribal libraries, private schools and tribal schools within their counties pursuant to A.R.S. § 15-301(C); and,

WHEREAS, county school superintendents may provide services in their counties or jointly with two or more counties pursuant to A.R.S. § 15-302(C); and,

WHEREAS, the counties that sign this IGA wish to join together through their county school superintendents as the Arizona Association of County School Superintendents pursuant to A.R.S. §§ 15-301 and 15-302; and,

WHEREAS, the Arizona Association of County School Superintendents is affiliated with the Arizona Association of Counties; and,

WHEREAS, the counties are public agencies as defined in A.R.S. § 11-951; and,

WHEREAS, the counties desire to enter into this IGA to jointly exercise powers common to the counties and to take joint or cooperative action pursuant to A.R.S. § 11- 952.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals and the mutual promises and conditions set forth below, the counties agree as follows:

1. Duration/Term of this IGA. This IGA's term is for ten (10) years and shall be effective on November 15, 2021, and continue through November 14, 2031, so long as at least nine (9) counties and their county school superintendents approve this IGA and at least 9 counties remain Parties to this IGA. Thereafter, the counties may extend this IGA for up to two succeeding terms of ten years each. By April 1 of the year in which this IGA's term (primary or renewal) would expire, each county that intends to extend this IGA for an additional ten-year term must notify the other counties of that county's intent to extend. If less than 9 counties give written notice of intent to extend this IGA for an additional 10-year term, then this IGA shall expire on June 30 of the tenth year of the then-current term.

2. Termination of this IGA for Convenience or Without Cause. Each county may terminate its participation in this IGA with thirty (30) days written notice specifying the termination date. Any termination of this IGA shall not relieve a county of its responsibility for costs incurred prior to the effective date of the termination.
3. Cancellation of this IGA for Conflict of Interest. This IGA is subject to cancellation for conflict of interest pursuant to A.R.S. § 38-511, the pertinent provisions of which are incorporated into this IGA by reference.
4. Arizona Association of County School Superintendents. The counties that enter into this IGA shall join together with their county school superintendents and be called the Arizona Association of County School Superintendents (hereinafter referred to as "AACSS").
5. AACSS Purpose.
 - a. AACSS shall: (1) promote the public's interest in improving and advancing education in Arizona; (2) continuously strive to enhance teaching and learning and to upgrade curriculum content; (3) serve as a liaison to civic and governmental agencies on educational issues; (4) work to improve educational administration; and (5) enhance delivery of educational services for the benefit of public schools and Arizona residents.
 - b. AACSS has sponsored and may continue to sponsor charitable and merit-recognition activities, including, but not limited to, the elementary-school-book-distribution program, the teacher-of-the-year awards, the spelling bee, and other joint educational activities and programs.
 - c. AACSS may undertake all joint and cooperative action that may be necessary and proper to accomplish these purposes and other objectives as required or desired by the county school superintendents.
 - d. AACSS adopted bylaws to govern itself and may amend those bylaws from time-to-time in accordance with the terms and conditions of this IGA and the procedures outlined in the bylaws and other governing documents of AACSS.
6. AACSS Financing and Budget.
 - a. AACSS shall hold an annual meeting and by the date of the annual meeting, AACSS shall establish a proposed annual budget, which must be approved at the meeting by at least 60% of the county school superintendents that approve this IGA.
 - b. Annually AACSS may establish and collect dues, and based on the current approved budget, may finance AACSS' activities and programs conditioned on the affirmative vote of 60% of the county school superintendents that are part of AACSS.

- c. In accordance with AACSS' bylaws, AACSS shall elect a Treasurer for a two-year term. The Treasurer shall ensure that: (1) AACSS dues and special assessments are collected and held in trust; (2) AACSS maintains financial records in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; (3) the records are produced for annual audits if required by a county, or a state or federal agency with jurisdiction; and (4) annual financial statements and reports are prepared to the reasonable satisfaction of the counties.
- d. In accordance with Federal and State laws, AACSS may obtain an Internal Revenue Service Employer Identification Number (EIN) or Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) for its operations.
- e. AACSS may obtain and operate a bank account for AACSS needs. AACSS shall maintain such bank account in accordance with the annual budget approved by the county school superintendents that approve this IGA.
- f. Each year, AACSS may purchase materials and services for the AACSS on an as-needed, when-needed basis. Each purchase will be executed based on the AACSS' needs and annual budget approved by the county school superintendents that approve this IGA.
- g. AACSS shall inspect, accept, and pay vendors for all materials and services promptly after receipt of an AACSS approved invoice or promptly after the materials and services are delivered.
- h. AACSS shall not finance purchases or operations by borrowing money.

7. Officers.

- a. In accordance with AACSS' bylaws, AACSS shall elect a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer for a two-year term of service.
- b. The President, Vice-President, and Secretary may be re-elected every even numbered year for additional two-year terms. Unless the bylaws otherwise provide, there is no limit on the number of terms that these officers may serve.

8. Termination from AACSS Membership and Termination from this IGA for Cause. AACSS may terminate for cause a county's membership in AACSS and that county's rights under this IGA for a material breach of this IGA. Failure to pay dues by the deadline specified by AACSS is a material breach of this IGA. Before terminating a county for cause, AACSS shall give that county ten (10) days' written notice to cure the default. If that county fails to cure the default within 10 days from the date that county receives notice, that county's membership in AACSS may be terminated by affirmative vote of 60% of the county school superintendents that are part of AACSS and that county's rights under this IGA may also be terminated.

9. Property Disposition Clause. If this IGA is terminated, any materials, services, or other property then in the possession or control of AACSS or which a third party possesses or controls but is under a duty to deliver or render to AACSS, shall be distributed to each county as its individual interest in the materials and services may appear on the date this IGA is terminated, subject to payment of any outstanding balance due and owing for materials and services.

- 10. Mutual Indemnification. To the maximum extent permitted by law, each Party (as “Indemnitor”) agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other Party, its officers, officials, agents, employees, or volunteers from and against any and all claims, losses, liability, costs or expenses (including reasonable attorney’s fees) (hereinafter collectively referred to as “Claims”) arising out of actions taken in performance of this IGA to the extent that such Claims are caused by the acts, omissions, negligence, misconduct, or other fault of the Indemnitor, its officers, officials, agents, employees, or volunteers.
- 11. Insurance. The counties and each of them, shall maintain appropriate insurance, including self-insurance pursuant to A.R.S. §§ 11-261 or 11-981 or participation in an insurance risk pool pursuant to A.R.S. § 11-952.01, at their own expense, during the entire term of this IGA. Certificates of Insurance shall be provided to AACSS or a Party upon request.
- 12. Notices. All notices required or permitted to be given under the terms of this IGA shall be in writing, and shall be effective upon hand delivery, deposit with a reputable overnight courier such as FedEx for overnight delivery or three (3) business days after deposit with the U.S. Mail via certified or registered mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested as follows:

A county shall have the right to change the place notice is to be given by providing written notice to the other counties in accordance with this section.

13. Relationship of Parties. Nothing contained in this IGA shall be deemed or construed as creating a joint venture, partnership, agency, employment, or fiduciary relationship between the counties. The counties' employees shall not be considered employees of the other counties, and the counties' personnel shall not be entitled or eligible, by virtue of this IGA, to participate in any benefits or privileges given or extended by the other counties to their employees. The counties shall not be liable for any debts, accounts, or obligations, and are not responsible for other liabilities whatsoever of the other counties, including (without limitation) the other counties' obligations to withhold Social Security and income taxes for themselves or any of their employees.

14. Worker's Compensation. Each county will comply with the notice of A.R.S. § 23-1022(E). For purposes of A.R.S. § 23-1022, irrespective of the operations protocol in place, each county is solely responsible for the payment of Worker's Compensation benefits for its employees.

15. Third Parties. Nothing in this IGA shall be deemed to create any right in any person not a Party hereto. Nothing contained in this IGA shall create a contractual relationship with or a cause of action in favor of a third party against the counties. This IGA is not intended to benefit any third party.
16. Implied Contract Terms. Each provision of law and any terms required by law to be in this IGA are a part of this IGA as if fully stated herein.
17. Assignment. No Party to this IGA may assign any of its rights or responsibilities under this IGA, either voluntarily or involuntarily, whether by merger, consolidation, dissolution, operation of law, or any other manner, except with the prior written consent of the counties. No Party may delegate any performance under this IGA, except with the prior written consent of the counties. Any purported assignment of rights or delegation of performance in violation of this section is void.
18. Waiver. A Party's failure or neglect to enforce any term, covenant, condition, right, or duty in this IGA is neither a waiver of any term, covenant condition, right, or duty, nor is it deemed to be a waiver of that Party's rights or remedies under this IGA. A waiver or extension is only effective if it is in writing and signed by the counties. No single or partial exercise of any right or remedy will preclude any other or further exercise of any right or remedy. One or more waivers by the counties of any term, covenant, condition, right, or duty in this IGA shall not be construed as a waiver of a subsequent default or breach of the same covenant, term, condition, right, or duty.
19. Headings and Construction of Agreement. In construing this IGA, all headings and titles are for the convenience of the Parties and for organizational purposes only and shall not be considered in interpreting the meaning of any provision in this IGA or considered a part of this IGA. Whenever required by the context, each number shall include the plural, each gender shall include all genders, and unless the context otherwise requires, the word "person" shall include corporation, firm, or association.
20. Fair Meaning. This IGA is intended to express the mutual intent of the Parties and shall not be construed as if prepared by one of the Parties, but rather according to its fair meaning as a whole, as if all of the counties had prepared it.
21. Compliance with Law. The counties shall comply with all applicable laws, statutes, ordinances, codes, rules and regulations, and lawful orders of public authorities in performing this IGA, including environmental laws.
22. Legal Arizona Workers Act Compliance. The counties hereby warrant that they will at all times during the term of this IGA comply with all federal immigration laws applicable to their employment of their employees and with the requirements of A.R.S. §§ 23-214 and 41-4401 (together the "State and Federal Immigration Laws"). A breach of the foregoing warranty shall be deemed a material breach, and the counties shall have the right to terminate this IGA for such a breach, in addition to any other applicable remedies. The counties retain the legal right to inspect the papers of each contractor or subcontractor employee who performs work pursuant to this IGA to verify performance of the foregoing warranty of compliance with the State and Federal Immigration Laws.
23. Fingerprint and E-verify. If required, and only to the extent required, the counties shall comply with the fingerprinting provisions in A.R.S. § 15-512(H) and the e-verify provisions in A.R.S. § 41-4401.

- 24. Non-discrimination. The counties shall comply with State Executive Order 2009-09, the pertinent provisions of which are incorporated into this IGA by reference, and which mandate, in part, that all persons, regardless of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin or political affiliation, shall have equal access to employment opportunities, and all other applicable State and Federal employment laws, rules and regulations, including the Americans with Disabilities Act. The counties shall take affirmative action to ensure that applicants for employment and employees are not discriminated against due to race, creed, color, religion, sex, national origin or disability.
- 25. Governing Law. This IGA shall be governed by, and construed and enforced, in accordance with the laws of the State of Arizona. Any action or claim arising from, under, or pursuant to this IGA shall be brought in the courts, state or federal, within the State of Arizona, and the counties expressly waive the right to bring any legal action or claim in any other court. Any changes in the governing laws, rules, and regulations that do not materially affect the counties' obligations under this IGA during the term of this IGA will apply but will not require an Amendment.
- 26. Material Change in Law or Regulation. In the event of adoption of legislation, regulations, or instructions or the initiation of an enforcement action by a governmental agency, any of which materially affects the legality of this IGA or the relationship among the counties hereto, the counties may propose amendments to this IGA to bring this IGA into conformity with such laws. If the counties are unable to reach agreement on the renegotiation of this IGA within thirty (30) days of the initiation of negotiations, then the counties may terminate this IGA upon written notice to the counties.
- 27. Severability/Unenforceable Provisions. In the event that any of the provisions of this IGA are held to be unenforceable or invalid, the validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not be affected and effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the provisions held enforceable and valid. If any of the provisions of this IGA are inapplicable to a person or circumstance, the same provisions shall remain applicable to all other persons and circumstances.
- 28. Alternative Dispute Resolution. Pursuant to A.R.S. § 12-1518, disputes under this IGA shall be resolved through the use of arbitration when the case or lawsuit is subject to mandatory arbitration pursuant to rules adopted under A.R.S. § 12-133.
- 29. Waiver of Jury Trial. The counties, and each of them, hereby waive their respective rights to trial by jury in any action or proceeding arising out of this IGA.
- 30. Parol Evidence. This IGA is intended by the counties as a final and complete expression of their agreement. No course of prior dealings between the counties and no usage of the trade shall supplement or explain any terms used in this IGA.
- 31. Entire Agreement. This IGA contains the entire, integrated agreement of the counties and there are no oral agreements, understandings, or representations relied upon by the counties. This IGA supersedes all prior negotiations, representations, or agreements, whether written or oral. Any modifications or amendments to this IGA must be in writing and signed by the counties.
- 32. Counterparts and Electronic Signatures. This IGA may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument. The signature page of any counterpart may be detached therefrom without impairing the legal effect of the signature(s) thereon, provided such signature page is attached to any other counterpart identical thereto. The Parties understand and agree that they have the right to execute this IGA through paper or through electronic signature technology, and to the extent they sign electronically, their electronic signature is the legally binding equivalent to their handwritten signature. Signatures sent by electronic means (facsimile, scanned and sent via e-mail, or signed by electronic signature service where legally permitted) shall be deemed original signatures. The Parties expressly waive any objection to the admissibility of this IGA on the grounds that it is an electronic record, or a paper copy of an electronic document, or a paper copy of a document bearing an electronic signature. Each Party may sign any number of copies of this IGA, and each signed copy shall be deemed to be an original, but all of them together shall represent one and the same agreement.

33. Legal Agreement. This IGA is an important, binding legal document, and each Party warrants it has had an opportunity to consult with an attorney about the terms set forth herein. Each Party acknowledges that it understands the meaning of all terms contained herein and agrees to their application and enforceability. Each Party acknowledges and represents that it is duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing, and has the right, power, and authority to enter into this IGA and bind itself hereto through the person set forth as signatory for the Party below. The person signing this IGA represents and warrants that he/she is duly authorized and has the legal capacity to execute this IGA.

APPROVALS

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the counties hereto have caused this IGA to be executed by their duly authorized officials and have affixed their signatures to this IGA on the date written below.
