Re: Response to County Attorney Anti-Racketeering Program Expenditures

Dear Mr. Eaves:

As you know there are a number of outstanding proposals from the County Attorney regarding her proposed expenditure of RICO Funds that we require your review. I have written twice to you on the Raise the Bar Consulting L.L.C. Amendment No. 7. This item has been continued now three times waiting for your analysis. In addition, I am enclosing another County Attorney Anti-Racketeering Fund request that the Board would like to have you review and comment on before acting, that being the CBS Consulting Group Amendment No. 1, I am attaching the backup material to this proposed expenditure of County Attorney Anti-Racketeering funds. The background material for this is attached to this letter.

I realize you have been busy recently in trial, however the Board is becoming concerned we have not received a timely response to our request for review. If you believe you are unable to provide the services in a timely manner, please let me know and we seek other legal counsel.

For your reference I am also attaching the previous request that I have made for the County Attorney Antiracketeering proposed expenditures.

Sincerely,

RE: Professional Services Contract with CBS Consulting Group (Cheryl Brownstein-Santiago)

Pursuant to Procurement Policy D. 29.6 subsection B. Direct Selection, the County Attorney is requesting to enter into a professional services contract with CBS Consulting Group (Cheryl Brownstein-Santiago).

CBS Consulting Group (see attached) will provide grant writing services in the amount of $67,500 to the Pima County Attorney's Office focusing on both competitive and noncompetitive formula grants to enhance our ability to reduce crime by holding offenders accountable, supporting victims and crime prevention programs. Historically, Ms. Janet Hart has for the past several years performed our grant writing services resulting in our office receiving millions of dollars annually in federal and state grants. However, she has indicated that she will not renew her contract when it expires at the end of the fiscal year. Due to Mr. Hart's unique experience with our office and combined with her relationships she has developed with numerous granting agencies over the years, she has agreed to work with CBS Consulting Group over the next several months to allow for seamless transition maximizing opportunities for continued success in receiving grant funding.

Re: Southern Arizona Rescue Association Receipt of $25,000 in RICO Funding from the Pima County Sheriff

Dear Mr. Eaves:

I recently was made aware that the Southern Arizona Rescue Association (SARA) previously received a RICO grant from former Pima County Sheriff Christopher Nanos. SARA deposited the check, but was concerned about expending the resources based on the past controversy associated with former Sheriff's personnel regarding administration of RICO funds.

SARA is a nonprofit organization that provides direct support to various law enforcement agencies, including the Sheriff. This group of trained volunteers provides emergency medical and other rescue operations and primarily focus their work on assisting and/or providing most of the support services for the rescue of hikers and others who become sick or injured in national forest monuments and other natural recreation areas. If this organization did not exist, the bulk of the rescue work would fall to law enforcement. Hence, their activities free up law enforcement resources for more pressing law enforcement activities.

I believe SARA's receipt of RICO funding to support their general operations was an appropriate expenditure. However, before SARA expends any of the RICO funds received, I would appreciate your review and concurrence that this is an appropriate use of the funds already received by this agency.

Re: Legality of using RICO funds for forensic examinations related to strangulation

Dear: Mr. Eaves,

Strangulation can be one of the most lethal forms of domestic violence and sexual assault. When domestic violence perpetrators choke or strangle their victim, it can be considered felonious assault or attempted homicide. The investigation and collection of forensic evidence provided on-site at hospitals can significantly impact the testimony or affidavit by forensic examination staff in the prosecution of law enforcement-referred cases. The forensic examination services are performed by qualified and trained personnel provided by an outside agency funded through the Pima County Behavioral Health Department (formerly Office of Medical Services). The forensic interviews are frequently referred by the Pima County Sheriff's Department and results of the examination are used by the Pima County Attorney's Office.

Would it be appropriate to fund outside agencies to conduct forensic examinations and to collaborate with law enforcement and legal personnel with monies made available to the Pima County Attorney's Office through the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO)?

Re: Request by the Pima County Board of Supervisors to Review the Attached County Attorney RICO Funding Recommendations

Dear Mr. Eaves:

Enclosed is a three-ring binder that includes specific RICO fund allocations to a number of community activities, organizations and nonprofit entities. The binder contains RICO funding awards to 50 agencies, totaling $254,100.

The Board of Supervisors (BOS) has asked for your review for each of these proposed indirect Anti-Racketeering Fund expenditures of the County Attorney and determine if they are lawful and meet the law regarding the expenditure of RICO funds.

The BOS also asks that your review be completed with your recommendation forwarded to them before their next meeting scheduled for February 20, 2018. To comply with our standard policies for placing items on the BOS's Agenda, I will need to have your completed recommendation by Friday February 16, 2018.

I assume this work will be completed under the terms of our services contract. Please include an appropriate bill for your services.
