The failure of any party to insist, on any one or more instances, upon the full and complete performance of any of the terms and provisions of the Agreement to be performed on the part of the other, or to take any action permitted as a result thereof, shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of the right to insist upon full and complete performance of the same, or any other covenant or condition, either in full or in part in the future. The acceptance by any party of sums of less than may be due and owing it at any time shall not be construed as accord and satisfaction.
