Re: Request for Funding – YWCA of Southern Arizona – Women's Counseling Network

Dear Ms. Mortimer:

As you are aware, as the County Administrator, I may refer proposals from agencies that request funding outside of the regular budget cycle. A proposal has come to my attention that I believe is worthy of your consideration. I have been informed the Committee will be meeting in mid-October; and I am requesting that, as Chair, you include an agenda item to consider the merits of this request and make a funding recommendation to the Board of Supervisors.

The YWCA of Southern Arizona's Women's Counseling Network (WCN) provides access to long-term behavioral healthcare for low-income women who are not eligible for AHCCCS and who do not have health insurance. Relying heavily on professional therapists in private practice in the community, WCN fills a critical gap, providing service to women referenced from other local service providers such as La Frontera, CODAC, COPE, EMERGE, Southern Arizona Center Against Sexual Assault and The Haven.

The budget for the program is $124,037, of which all but $18,000 has been raised. The YWCA of Southern Arizona is requesting funding of $18,000 to support the WCN to ensure the continuation of the program.
