Share an adoption story or link to a story you shared on social media Best Friends National Adoption weekend turned out to be an amazing adoption weekend for some of our longest stay residents. Staff and volunteers here at Pima Animal Care Center were particularly thrilled to finally see a much-loved long stay named Abadon (see attached photo) find his forever home after spending 251 days in shelter. Despite winning over countless staff and volunteers, Abadon, an affectionate, smart, and active two-year-old pittie had inexplicably been overlooked by members of the public for over eight months as he sat in shelter waiting to find his family. In an effort to give Abadon a little visibility boost, we decided to feature him on our social media pages right smack dab in the middle of Best Friends National Adoption Weekend. And it worked! Abadon's new dad come in the very next day to welcome him to his forever home.
