Stop accepting grants from the CDC. They push these grants onto you. They sound good, but ultimately result in more complex controls on us. Do we need a giant program to 'stop' monkeypox? No. It is just another STD. And there will be more. You know how to stop them. Time for some morality in society. Families. No more various 'new' kinds of sexuality. I know this has been creeping along for a long time. Listen to 'Triad' from Jefferson Airplane album Crown of Creation.

Again: the CDC is operated by people that are not following Judeo-Christian models of human behavior. Do not trust them.
