MEMORANDUM

TO: Honorable Chair and Board Members
Pima County Board of Supervisors

FROM: Melissa Manriquez, Clerk of the Board mm

DATE: February 11, 2025

RE: Petition for Relief of Real Property Taxes – Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church

Pursuant to A.R.S. §42-11109(E), Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church, filed a petition on July 25, 2024, for relief of their Real Property Taxes for Parcel No. 401-13-1520 for tax years 2019 through 2023.

Pending Tax Payments:

Parcel No.	Year	Taxes Due	Interest	Fees/Penalties	Total
401-13-1520	2020-1	$ 6,185.76	$ 541.25	$20.00	$ 6,747.01
401-13-1520	2021-1	$ 5,139.18	$ 398.29	$ 0.00	$ 5,537.47
401-13-1520	2022-1	$ 4,907.12	$ 233.09	$ 0.00	$ 5,140.21
Total		$16,232.06	$1,172.63	$20.00	$17,424.69

For tax years 2019 through 2022, the Assessor’s review indicated that had the affidavit been filed in a timely manner, the Assessor would have granted the exemption.

The exemption was granted/applied for tax year 2023.

Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your request dated May 12, 2023, for information about your tax-exempt status.

We issued a determination letter to you on May 1982, and you're currently exempt under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(03).

We also recognize the subordinates on the list you submitted as Exempt from federal income tax under IRC Section 501(c)(03).

For federal income tax purposes, donors can deduct contributions or gifts they make to you if you use the contributions or gifts exclusively for IRC Section 501(c)(3) purposes. If you solicit contributions or gifts for non-501(c)(3) purposes, you must include a statement that the contributions aren't deductible for federal income tax purposes.

Because IRC Section 170(c) describes your subordinate organizations, donors can deduct contributions they make to them.

For information about filing requirements visit www.irs.gov/charities. Specifically, IRC Section 6033(j) provides that if you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked on the filing due date of the third required return or notice.

In addition, each subordinate organization is subject to automatic revocation if it doesn't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years. Subordinate organizations can file required returns or notices individually or as part of a group return.

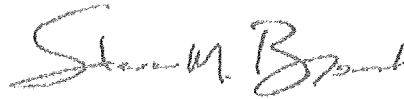

If you have questions, you can call 877-829-5500 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., local time, Monday through Friday (Alaska and Hawaii follow Pacific Time).

Specific Intent of Good Sheperd Presbyterian Church

Our church has been located at 400 Palo Verde since the 1960's. I don't have the exact date when the church was relocated because of the mine in Ajo being expanded. The church is located on 2 parcels that are used as one. The church is used every Sunday for Bible Study and a Worship service. It is also used during the week for mens prayer breakfast and a midweek Bible study . There are no other uses for our church except religious activeties on a weekly basis.

Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church

Article 1

Objectives, Purpose, Formation, Limitations, Powers and Duties, Property

Section 1. Purpose. The purposes for which the Corporation is formed are as more fully set forth in the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church including the Great Ends of the Church, and in the Articles of Incorporation (Article IV). The form of Government of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church is hereby adopted and made a part of the By-Laws of the Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church, an Arizona non-profit corporation.

Section 2. Formation. The Corporation is formed by Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church pursuant to the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church .

Section 3. Authority. In carrying out such purposes, the trustees and the Corporation shall be under the authority of the session and the congregation and shall, at all times and in all respects, conform to and support the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church as it is now or shall be, from time to time amended, established, made, and declared by the authority of the Presbyterian Church.

Section 4. Limitation of Powers and Duties. The powers and duties of the Corporation and its trustees shall not infringe upon the powers and duties of the session or of the board of deacons of the church.

Section 5. Powers and Duties. The Corporation shall have the powers and duties granted by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church.

To receive, hold, encumber, manage, and transfer property, real or personal, for the church;

To accept and execute deeds of title to such property;

To hold and defend title to such property;

To manage any permanent special funds for the furtherance of the purposes of the church.

In addition, to the extent not included in the above and not inconsistent with the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church the Corporation shall have all of the general powers of a non-profit religious corporation organized under Arizona Revised Statutes Section.

Article VIII
Amendments

Amendments to these By-Laws may be made at the Congregational Meeting after the intention to do so has been announced on two (2) consecutive Sundays before the meeting.

The bylaws of the Corporation may be amended or added to, or new bylaws may be adopted, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the Corporation present at a Congregational Meeting called for that purpose; provided, that the bylaws must at all times and in all respects remain in conformity with the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church.

Article IX
Indemnification of Trustees and Officers

Each trustee and officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation against expense reasonably incurred in connection with any action, suit, or proceeding to which the trustee or officer may be made a party by reason of being or having been a trustee or officer of the Corporation (whether or not he or she continues to be a trustee or officer at the time of incurring such expenses), except in relation to matters as to which he or she shall finally be adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding to be personally liable. The foregoing right of indemnification shall not be exclusive of other rights to which any trustee or officers may be entitled as a matter of law. The indemnification of the Corporation's trustees and officers shall conform to the ARS Section 10-3851-52.

Article X
Dissolution

If the church is formally dissolved the trustees, then will disperse all such property, both real and personal, present and future, as the Corporation to an organization qualified under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States.

Section 6. Power and Authority, The Board of Trustees shall have power and authority to carry out the affairs of the Corporation and and in so doing may elect or appoint all necessary officers or committees; may employ all such employees as shall be requisite for the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation; may fix the compensation of such persons; may prescribe the duties of such persons; may dismiss any appointive officer or agent of the Corporation without previous notice. The board of trustees may, in the absence of an officer, delegate that officer's powers and duties to any other or a trustee for the time being.

Section 7 Executive Committee. The officers of the board of trustees shall constitute the executive committee. The executive committee shall have and exercise the authority of the board of trustees in the management of the business of the Corporation between the meetings of the board. The board of trustees may appoint such other committees, including therein persons who are not members of the board of trustees, as in the judgment of the trustees will be helpful in carrying on the work of the corporation.

Article V Meeting of Members

Section 1. Annual Meeting. There shall be an annual meeting of the members of the Corporation and shall be held in the month of January at such time and place as the session may designate. The Moderator of the session shall preside over the meeting. The President of the Corporation shall preside over such corporation or budgetary discussion as may require the moderator to be absent.

Other Congregational Meetings may be called in accordance with the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church. Or upon the presentation of a petition containing signatures of ten (10) percent of the active members.

A quorum shall consist of one tenth of the active members.

Section 2 .Place and Time Such meeting shall be held at the same place and time as the annual meeting of the congregation or immediately thereafter. Whenever permitted by civil law, both ecclesiastical and corporate business may be conducted at the same meeting. Any stated or called meeting of the congregation shall be a meeting of the Corporation, and any business may be conducted that is appropriate to the Corporation.

Section 3. Notices. Notice of all meetings of the Corporation shall conform in all respects to the notice requirement of meetings of the congregation.

Section 4. Procedural Requirements. The meetings of the members shall be conducted to conform to the procedural requirements of meetings of the congregation and the provisions of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. In addition to those requirements and provisions, these bylaws provide specific guidance for the Corporation.

Section 5. Proxy Voting. Voting by proxy is prohibited.

Article VI Officers

Section 1. Officers. The board of trustees, as soon as may be after the election of trustees in each year, shall elect from their number a president of the Corporation, and may from time to time select one or more vice-presidents, assistant secretaries, and assistant treasurers. The clerk of session shall serve as Secretary of the Corporation. The treasurer elected by the session shall serve as treasurer of the Corporation. The same person may hold any two offices except those of president and secretary. The board may also appoint such other officers and agents as may be deemed necessary for the transaction of the affairs of the Corporation.

Section 2. Term. The term of office for all officers shall be one (1) year or until their respective successors are chosen. Any officer elected by the board of trustees may be removed from the office at any meeting of the board of trustees by the affirmative vote of a majority of the trustees then in office, whenever in their judgment the interest of the Corporation will be served thereby. The board of trustees shall have full power to fill any vacancies in any offices it is authorized to elect occurring for any reason whatsoever.

Section 3. Powers and Duties. The officers of the Corporation shall respectively have such powers and perform such duties in the management of property and affairs of the Corporation, subject to the control of the Trustees, as generally pertain to their respective offices, as well as such additional powers and duties as may from time to time be conferred by the board of trustees. No action taken by the officers shall infringe upon the authority of the session of the church or of the board of deacons and all actions shall be in conformity with the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Subject to this Section, these bylaws and the articles of incorporation of the Corporation, the officers shall have the following powers and duties in regards to the Corporation:

A. At the Annual Meeting in January the Elder-Trustees shall be composed of three (3) classes as nearly equal in number as possible, of which only one class shall expire each year. There shall be a minimum of six (6) elders, who shall serve as Trustees. These with the Moderator, who normally shall be the pastor of the church, and the co-pastor(s) and/or associate pastor(s) constitute the Session.

a. The rotation term of an Elder-Trustee shall be three (3) years.

b. The rotation plan is hereby adopted, with no Elder-Trustee succeeding himself/herself after having serving no more than two (2) full terms of three (3) years, without the lapse of at least one (1) full year.

Termination for any cause of the active service of a person on session shall automatically terminate such person as a trustee of the Corporation.

Article IV

Meetings of the Board of Trustees

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the board of trustees shall be held in conjunction with or immediately following the first meeting of the session of the church held after the annual meeting of the congregation of the church.

Section 2. Procedures. The meeting requirements and provisions of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church shall govern. In addition to those requirements and provisions, these bylaws provide specific guidance for the Corporation. Robert's Rules of Order (Newly Revised) shall be used for parliamentary guidance.

Section 3. Notices. Notice of the time and place and in case of special meeting the purpose of every meeting of the board of trustees shall be in writing and shall be duly sent, mailed or otherwise delivered to each trustee not less than ten (10) days before the meeting; provided, that no notice of any regularly scheduled or adjourned meeting need be given. Meetings may be held at any time without notice if all of the trustees are present or if those not present waive notice of the time, place, and purpose of the meeting, either before or after the holding thereof.

Section 4. Quorum. A majority of the trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the action of the board of trustees present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the action of the board of trustees; provided, that if the trustees shall unanimously consent in writing to any action to be taken by the Corporation, such action shall be valid as corporate action as though it had been authorized at a meeting of the trustees. If at any meeting of the board of trustees there shall be less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum shall have been obtained.

Section 5. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of trustees may be held simultaneously with meetings of the congregation or immediately thereafter. Special meetings may be held at any time upon the call of session, the president or vice-president, or of not less than one-third of the trustees then in office.

Acceptance of Appointment by Statutory Agent

The undersigned hereby acknowledges and accepts the appointment as statutory agent of the above-named corporation effective

This 4 day of March, 2010.

The Essentials

All Scripture is self-attesting and being Truth, requires our unreserved submission in all areas of life. The infallible Word of God, the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments, is a complete and unified witness to God's redemptive acts culminating in the incarnation of the Living Word, the Lord Jesus Christ. The Bible, uniquely and fully inspired by the Holy Spirit, is the supreme and final authority on all matters on which it speaks. On this sure foundation we affirm these additional essentials of our faith.

1. We believe in one God, the sovereign Creator and Sustainer of all things, infinitely perfect and eternally existing in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. To Him be all honor, glory and praise forever!
2. Jesus Christ, the living Word, became flesh through His miraculous conception by the Holy Spirit and His virgin birth. He who is true God became true man united in one Person forever. He died on the cross a sacrifice for our sins according to the Scriptures. On the third day He arose bodily from the dead, ascended into heaven where, at the right hand of the Majesty on High, He now is our High Priest and Mediator.
3. The Holy Spirit has come to glorify Christ and to apply the saving work of Christ to our hearts. He convicts us of sin and draws us to the Savior, indwelling our hearts. He gives new life to us, empowers and imparts gifts to us for service. He instructs and guides us into all truth, and seals us for the day of redemption.
4. Being estranged from God and condemned by our sinfulness, our salvation is wholly dependent upon the work of God's free grace. God credits His righteousness to those who put their faith in Christ alone for their salvation, and thereby justifies them in His sight. Only such as are born of the Holy Spirit and receive Jesus Christ become children of God and heirs of eternal life.
5. The true Church is composed of all persons who through saving faith in Jesus Christ and the sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit are united together in the body of Christ. The Church finds her visible yet imperfect, expression in local congregations where the Word of God is preached in its purity and the sacraments are administered in their integrity, where scriptural discipline is practiced, and where loving fellowship is maintained. For her perfecting she awaits the return of her Lord.
6. Jesus Christ will come again to the earth personally, visibly, and bodily—to judge the living and the dead, and to consummate history and the eternal plan of God. "Even so, come, Lord Jesus." (Rev. 22:20)
7. The Lord Jesus Christ commands all believers to proclaim the gospel throughout the world and to make disciples of all nations. Obedience to the Great Commission requires total commitment to "Him who loved us and gave Himself for us." He calls us to a life of self-denying love and service. "For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them." (Eph. 2:10)
