The following two items should be bundled together.

Agenda Item #9 Housing Affordability

The establishment of a Pima County Commission on Housing Affordability to development potential County properties for affordable housing and

Agenda Addendum Item #4 Street Living Homeless Temporary Shelter
Availability of County Properties for Street Living Homeless Temporary Shelter

You can give a person a fish - over and over and over - or you can teach people to fish and they can then feed themselves.

It is not the taxpayer's responsibility - it is the individual's!!

Check with Canon City Colorado on their housing program. There are requirements to living in city-provided housing - the rent is small but you must have a job!

Stop being enablers and help people pull themselves up, if that's what they want. If they have no interest in a better life, perhaps we cannot and should not help them.
