Re: Additional Information – January 10, 2023 Board of Supervisors Meeting Agenda Item 11 – 2022 Election

Please see the attached memorandum from Elections Director Constance Hargrove regarding the November 8, 2022 General Election recount and election update. The latest report includes statistical data on voter turnout and the streamlined check-in process as a result of using e-poll books.

Ms. Hargrove expects to provide the Board of Supervisors a future update that will include an analysis of printer and equipment use on Election Day.

RE: January 10, 2023, Agenda Item 11

Ms. Leshner,

Attached is the recount and election update for the November 8, 2022, General Election. The election update does not provide an analysis of printer and equipment problems encountered on election day because the recount and election contest consumed much of the staff's time. However, we will provide an update as soon as we complete our review of the election.

The report includes statistical data about voter turnout and how e-poll books allow a much quicker check-in process. The information will allow me to determine the need for additional equipment and voting locations. I look forward to working with you and the Board of Supervisors to prepare for the next election.

Recount

The Pima County Elections Department successfully conducted a recount for the offices of Attorney General and Superintendent of Public Education. Both offices met the statutory threshold of one-half of one percent of the number of votes cast that triggers an automatic recount. According to Arizona Revised Statutes, The Secretary of State (SOS) initiated the recount, and the Maricopa County Superior Court issued the order.

The elections staff programmed and tested the tabulating equipment in preparation for the recount. In addition, the Democratic and Republican parties conducted a logic and accuracy test beginning at 9:00 am on December 6. The (SOS) also conducted a logic and accuracy test on December 6 beginning at noon. Both political parties were present at the SOS logic and accuracy test. The County passed both tests and began the recount.

The Election's office utilized a two-person team to scan, record the count, and rebox the ballots. The warehouse staff distributed the batches of ballots and moved them to the designated location after the teams finished counting. The political party representatives observed the process, selected the batches for the hand count audit, and recorded each batch when they were complete. The staff encountered some ballots they could not scan that had to be duplicated. The teams duplicated the ballots and returned them to staff to scan with the current batches.

The Election's office estimated that the recount would take about a week. However, the efficiency of the process allowed us to complete the recount in three days. The recount resulted in changes in ballots cast on election day and early ballots with a net change in the Attorney General's race of zero votes for Kris Mayes and a minus two votes for Abraham Hamadeh. The Superintendent of Public Instruction's race resulted in a net change of plus eleven votes for Kathy Hoffman and one for Tom Horne. The attached "Explanation of Changes" explains the changes in vote counts.

After the completion of the recount, the Democratic, Republican, and Libertarian parties participated in a hand count audit on December 17. The hand count audit also had some changes, but the changes were well below the established threshold. The "Hand Count Report" is attached for your review.

Election Contest

The Hamadeh campaign filed an election contest before the recount results were released. The court ordered a review of all ballots requiring duplication. A team of three individuals appointed by the Democratic and Republican parties and the court reviewed the ballots. The teams found no discrepancies in a review of over two hundred ballots. The judge ruled that the defendant did not prove his case on Friday, December 23.

November 8 Election Update

The election recount and contest did not allow much time to analyze specific equipment issues on election day. Some vote centers experienced printer problems, while others had no problems. All printers were tested and were working when deployed. It is difficult to ascertain whether or not the problems occurred during delivery or setup. To that end, we are exploring ways to deliver printers that limit the number of times they are moved and provide more security during and after delivery. The Elections Department will provide updates once the evaluation of the Election is complete.

I cannot provide a full analysis of the election, but I can provide insight into how well vote centers functioned on election day. The Turnout and Equipment Deployment attachment shows the total number of voters at each vote center, and the number of early ballots dropped off at each location. The total potential voter's column is the sum of election day and early voters. The ExpressVote, Touch Pads (e-poll books), printers, and voting booth numbers reflect the quantity of equipment each polling location had on election day. The final column is the number of voters checked in per hour on election day. Each polling location had one or more e-poll books for regular voters and one e-poll book for provisional voters. Most locations had two printers during the general election.

There is a correlation between equipment and wait times in polling places. The e-poll books allow poll workers to process voters through the line quickly. However, the voters now need a place to mark their ballots. It can take a voter 3-10 minutes to mark a general election ballot creating a bottleneck. Most voting locations receive 15 voting booths for both the primary and general elections. However, the statistics show that 15 voting booths are insufficient to ensure a reasonable wait time for voters. The obvious solution is to add more voting booths to each location. However, some locations are too small to accommodate more voting booths. One solution may be to add another polling place in the area. However, there are other factors to consider before we make any recommendations.

RE: Explanation of Recount Changes

A recount of all ballots cast for the office of the Attorney General resulted in changes in ballots cast on election day and early ballots. The increase and decrease of overvoted and undervoted ballots have the net effect of two fewer ballots cast for the office. Candidate Mayes has a net change of zero, whereas candidate Hamadeh has a net change of minus two votes.

A recount of all ballots cast for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction resulted in changes in ballots cast on election day, early, and provisional ballots. Candidate Hoffman gained eleven votes from ballots originally read as undervotes by the scanners. The recount resulted in candidate Horne gaining three votes from early and provisional ballots but losing two votes from election day ballots.

Attorney General

Candidate	Election Day Ballots	Early Ballots	Provisional Ballots	Net Change
Kris Mayes	+2	-2	0	0
Abraham Hamadeh	-4	+2	0	-2
Overvotes	0	+3	0	+3
Undervotes	+2	-3	0	-1

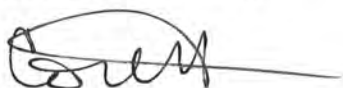

- Kris Mayes gained two election day votes and lost two early ballot votes for a net change of zero.
- Abraham Hamadeh lost four election day votes and gained two early ballot votes for a net change of minus two.
- Early ballot overvotes increased by three.
- Election day undervotes increased by two, and early ballot undervotes decreased by three.

Superintendent of Public Instruction

Candidate	Election Day Ballots	Early Ballots	Provisional Ballots	Net Change
Kathy Hoffman	+11	-1	+1	+11
Tom Horne	-2	+1	+2	+1
Undervotes	-9	0	-3	-12

- Kathy Hoffman gained eleven election day votes, lost one early ballot vote, and gained one provisional ballot vote for a net change of plus eleven.
- Tom Horne lost two election day votes, gained one early vote, and gained two provisional votes for a net change of plus one.
- No change in overvotes.
- Election day undervotes decreased by nine, and provisionals decreased by three for a net change of minus twelve.

Respectfully submitted,

Constance L. Hargrove
Elections Director

PIMA COUNTY
Hand Count Audit Report - Recount November 8, 2022 General Election.

Synopsis:

Pursuant to A.R.S. § 16-602 & § 16-663 (B) Pima County conducted the hand count ballot audit for the November 8, 2022 General Election Recount. At least two percent of ballots that were subject to the recount were audited as per Arizona State Law. The audit consisted of 18 batches, for a total of 8764 ballots.

The hand count began on December 6, 2022 when representatives from the Pima County Republican and Democratic Parties began to select the audit batches to be counted. All ballots were accounted for in the central counting location before the selection process started.

The physical hand count started at 9:00 AM on December 17, 2022 and was concluded at 12:45 PM on December 17, 2022. The tabulation method used was the stacking method. The hand count was conducted by 16 boards consisting of 3 to 4 members, of which not more than 2 members were from the same political party.

Comments:

The results of the hand count audit were within the variance as defined by the Arizona Secretary of State.
