

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Jeff Carver has been an exemplary Pima County Animal Care Center enforcement officer for more than 25 years, as an animal care tech, an investigator and a field supervisor; and

WHEREAS, Jeff loves field work and is known for interacting successfully with residents and their pets; and

WHEREAS, he helped organize and lead several difficult mass animal impounds involving a variety of animal species and situations; and

WHEREAS, Jeff is accomplished as an animal cruelty investigator and law enforcement trainer; and

WHEREAS, he was involved in the June 17, 2003, inception of the popular Board of Supervisors Pause for Paws program and usually was the officer who brought a dog to the Board meetings and told the audience about the animal's traits; and

WHEREAS, the concern Jeff Carver has for other people, as well as animals, was evident when he willingly and successfully donated a kidney in January 2008 to neighbor Jason Costell, who needed it desperately to survive; and

WHEREAS, Jeff's tireless work for the Pima Animal Care Center made it a better and more successful operation and he will be sorely missed;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Pima County Board of Supervisors hereby commends Jeff Carver upon the occasion of his retirement on May 1, 2015.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 21st day of April 2015.
