Subject: AZ Dist Council of the Assemblies of God

Bill,

Regarding the request for exemption for personal property account # 0156807 in the name of ARIZONA DIST COUNCIL OF ASSEMBLY, this mobile home had a bonded title issued to the district council that had a serial number off by one digit from another serial number on our tax roll (TXFL1AD150306862 & TXFLAD150306862.) Just the number 1 after the TXFL was the difference. After our tech's research, it turns out that the mobile homes in question are one in the same. The Dist Council received a bonded title and it appears that MVD never terminated the original title after the bonding title process. We have corrected the roll to reflect the correct serial number from the bonded title moving forward and are in the process of creating TRC's to apply the Organizational Exemption back to 2014. The District owned the property in question back to that time.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you,
