MEMORANDUM

TO: Honorable Chairman and Board Members
Pima County Board of Supervisors

FROM: Julie Castañeda, Clerk of the Board

DATE: January 19, 2021

RE: Petition for Relief of Real Property Taxes – Iglesia Apostolica de la fe en Cristo Jesus

Pursuant to A.R.S. §42-11109(E), Iglesia Apostolica de la fe en Cristo Jesus, filed a petition on December 10, 2020, for relief of their Real Property Taxes as follows:

Pending Tax Payments:

Parcel No.	Year	Taxes due	Interest	Fees	Total
131-04-4000	2020	$1,373.07	$0.00	$0.00	$1,373.07

On October 18, 2020, the Petitioner acquired the above referenced parcel from the previous property owners. At the closing of the property the Petitioner paid $1,373.07 in property taxes. The Petitioner is requesting that a relief of property taxes exemption be granted for the total amount paid at the time of closing. The previous owner had paid the taxes in full on October 21, 2020.

The Assessor's review indicated that had the affidavit been filed in a timely manner, the Assessor would not have granted the exemption because the required ownership of the property was not in effect during the time period required by statute.

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I, Eloy Fierro, writing this letter asking for your support on granting me a waiver on the property listed here.

4801 E 29th Street, Tucson, AZ. 85711

This property is where we conduct our weekly services and we are a non-profit organization. We recently purchased this property. We closed on October 8th, 2020 and during the closing we were charged the following amount on county property taxes. $1373.07 EFM

We are asking for consideration on receiving a waiver and these funds back from Pima County. Your support and help are greatly appreciated.

Warm regards,

Eloy Fierro

Dear Applicant:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from federal income tax under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3).

We have further determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i).

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status. In the case of an amendment to your organizational document or bylaws, please send us a copy of the amended document or bylaws. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. This does not apply, however, if you make or have made a timely election under section 3121(w) of the Code to be exempt from such tax. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, if you are involved in an excess benefit transaction, that transaction might be subject to the excise taxes of section 4958. Additionally, you are not automatically exempt from other federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other federal taxes, please contact your key district office.

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination unless the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, if you lose your section 509(a)(1) status, a grantor or contributor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act, or the substantial or material change on the part of the organization that resulted in your loss of such status, or if he or she acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would no longer be classified as a section 509(a)(1) organization.

Letter 947 (DO/CG)

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of Code sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

Contribution deductions are allowable to donors only to the extent that their contributions are gifts, with no consideration received. Ticket purchases and similar payments in conjunction with fundraising events may not necessarily qualify as deductible contributions, depending on the circumstances. See Revenue Ruling 67-246, published in Cumulative Bulletin 1967-2, on page 104, which sets forth guidelines regarding the deductibility, as charitable contributions, of payments made by taxpayers for admission to or other participation in fundraising activities for charity.

In the heading of this letter we have indicated whether you must file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax. If Yes is indicated, you are required to file Form 990 only if your gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. However, if you receive a Form 990 package in the mail, please file the return even if you do not exceed the gross receipts test. If you are not required to file, simply attach the label provided, check the box in the heading to indicate that your annual gross receipts are normally $25,000 or less, and sign the return.

If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. A penalty of $20 a day is charged when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay. However, the maximum penalty charged cannot exceed $10,000 or 5 percent of your gross receipts for the year, whichever is less. For organizations with gross receipts exceeding $1,000,000 in any year, the penalty is $100 per day per return, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay. The maximum penalty for an organization with gross receipts exceeding $1,000,000 shall not exceed $50,000. This penalty may also be charged if a return is not complete, so be sure your return is complete before you file it.

The law requires you to make your annual return available for public inspection without charge for three years after the due date of the return. You are also required to make available for public inspection a copy of your exemption application, any supporting documents and this exemption letter to any individual who requests such documents in person or in writing. You can charge only a reasonable fee for reproduction and actual postage costs for the copied materials. The law does not require you to provide copies of public inspection documents that are made widely available, such as by posting them on the Internet (World Wide Web). You may be liable for a penalty of $20 a day for each day you do not make these documents available for public inspection (up to a maximum of $10,000 in the case of an annual return).

You are not required to file federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

Letter 947 (DO/CG)

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

If distributions are made to individuals, case histories regarding the recipients should be kept showing names, addresses, purposes of awards, manner of selection, relationship (if any) to members, officers, trustees or donors of funds to you, so that any and all distributions made to individuals can be substantiated upon request by the Internal Revenue Service. (Revenue Ruling 56-304, C.B. 1956-2, page 306.)

If we have indicated in the heading of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt status and foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours

Steven T. Miller

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT'S COMPILATION REPORT

To the Board of Directors of Iglesia Apostolica De La Fe En Cristo
Jesus in the United States of America (Headquarters Office)
El Paso, Tx

We have compiled the accompanying statement of financial position of Iglesia Apostolica De La Fe En Cristo Jesus in the United States of America (a nonprofit organization) as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the related statements of activities and functional expenses for the years then ended. We have not audited or reviewed the accompanying financial statements and, accordingly, do not express an opinion or provide any assurance about whether the financial statements are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.

Our responsibility is to conduct the compilation in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The objective of a compilation is to assist management in presenting financial information in the form of financial statements without undertaking to obtain or provide any assurance that there are no material modifications that should be made to the financial statements.

Management has elected to omit substantially all of the disclosures and the statement of cash flows required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. If the omitted disclosures and statement of cash flows were included in the financial statements, they might influence the user's conclusions about the Organization's financial position and changes in net assets. Accordingly, these financial statements are not designed for those who are not informed about such matters.

The supplementary information contained in the Schedule of Districts and Outstanding Debt is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. The supplementary information has been compiled from information that is the representation of management. We have not audited or reviewed the supplementary information and, accordingly, do not express an opinion or provide any assurance on such supplementary information.

The "Constitution" is for the present incorporated by reference in its totality in these regulations.

ARTICLE 3 - MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH

3.01. Common Beliefs of the Membership.

A Single God

God

We believe that there is a single God that has been declared to the world in different forms through the ages and has been revealed like the Father in the creation of the universe, as Son in the redemption of the humanity and as Holy Spirit being spread in the hearts of the believers.

This God is the creator of everything that exists, may be visible or invisible, eternal, infinite in power, Holy in his nature, attributes and purposes showing an absolute and indivisible Divinity; is infinite in his immensity, inconceivable in his way of being and indescribable in his essence; acquaintance completely only by himself, because an infinite mind can only be understood to itself. He does not have body neither parts and therefore he is free of all the limitations. "The first commandment of all is: Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord" (Deuteronomy 6:4; Mark 12:29). "But to us there is but one God.." (1 Corinthians 8:5,6).

Jesus Christ

We believe that Jesus was born miraculously of the womb of the virgin Mary by work of the Holy Spirit, and that at the same time he is the unique and true God (Roman 9:5; 1 John 5:20). The same God of the Old Testament took human form (Isaiah 60:1-3). "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us.." (John 1:14). "And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory. " (1 Timothy 3:16). We believe that the divine attributes and the human nature were mixed in a perfect and incomprehensible form in Jesus. On the part of Mary, in whose womb took form of man, human Being; on the part of the Holy Spirit, that was the one that engendered it in Mary, was divine; therefore he is called Son of God and Son of man. Therefore, we believe that Jesus is God "For in Him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form" (Colossians 2:9) For a child will be born to us, a son will be given to us... Eternal Father, Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6). He is a creator of all (Isaiah 45:18; Colossians 1:16,17). He is omnipresent (Deuteronomy 4:39; John 3:13). For You are great and do wondrous deeds; You alone are God. Psalms 86:10 authority on the sea (Psalms 107:29,30; Marks 4:37-39). He is the same one always (Psalms 102:27; Hebrew

Holy Spirit

We believe in the baptism of the Holy Spirit, promised by God in the Old Testament and spread after the glorification of the Jesus Lord, that is who sends him (Joel 2:28, 29; John 7:37-39; 14:16-26; Acts 2:1-4). We believe, besides, that the demonstration that a person has been baptized with the Holy Spirit, are the new tongues or languages in which the believer can speak, and that this sign is also for our time. We believe also, that the Holy Spirit is power that permits to testify of Christ (Acts 1:8), and that serves for the formation of a more pleasant Christian character to God (Galatians 5:22-25). The same Spirit gives gifts to the men, that serve for the building of the Church (Roman 12:6-8; 1 Corinthians 12:1-12; Ephesians 4:7-13), but we do not accept any men that feels that they have the power to give another man a gift. "But one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually just as He wills." (1 Corinthians 12:11). "But to each one of us grace was given according to the measure of Christ's gift" (Ephesians 4:7). All the members of the Apostolic Church of the Faith in Jesus Christ in the United States, should seek the Holy Spirit and to try to live constantly in the Spirit, like the Word of God recommends it (Roman 8:5-16; Ephesians 5:18; Colossians 3:5).

Resurrection of Jesus.

We believe in the literal resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ that was performed on the third day of his death; like the evangelists declare it (Math 28:1-10; Marks 16:1-20; Luke 24:1-12, 36-44; John 20:1-18). This resurrection had been announced by the prophets (Isaiah 53:12) and is necessary for our hope and justification (Roman 4:25; 1 Corinthians 15:20).

Of the Institution.

The Church.

We believe that the Church of our Lord Jesus Christ is a, universal and indivisible, formed by all the men, without distinction of nationality, language and culture, that have accepted our Lord Jesus Christ as the Savior and they have been baptized in water by immersion in him name (Math 28:19; Acts 2:38; 8:16; 10:48; 19:5; Roman 6:1-4; Colossians. 2:12), they believe in the baptism in the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:5; 2:1-4), they live separated of the practice of the sin, and persist in serving the Lord (Math 24:13; Roman 2:7; 6:11-13; Ephesians 4:22-32; 5:1-11). The links that join the members of the Church is the love of God, the faith, having God as center, and its banner or flag which is the name of Jesus, whose emblem goes elegantly the imposing Church as armies in order (Songs 6:10).

The Church and The State.

We believe in the separation of the State and the Church and that none should intervene in the internal matters of each other, therefore here complies the biblical precept to give what is of Caesar to Caesar and what is of God to God (Marks 12:17). The members of the Church should take participation in civic activities according to its capacity and political inclinations, but always reflecting its personal ideas and not of the Church. They should stay neutral. At the same time, all the members of the Church should obey the civil authorities, all the laws and dispositions that they create, all though they should not do anything against their religious principles or do anything that oblige them to do things against their conscience (Roman 13:1-7).

Military Service

The Apostolic Church of the Faith in Jesus Christ, recognizes the human government as a divine ordering (Roman 13:1,2) and upon doing it thus, exhorts their members to affirm their loyalty to their country. Being disciples of the Jesus Lord, is the duty of every Christian to obey its precepts and commandments that shows as following: " But I say to you, do not resist an evil person" (Math 5:39). "Pursue peace with all men" (Hebrew 12:14). Also Mathew 26:52; Roman 12:19; James 5:6, Revelation 13:10. By these Writings, it is believed and interpreted that the followers of our Lord Jesus Christ should not destroy alien properties or remove human lives. It is considered a sin, that after they have received the knowledge of the truth, have been forgiven of all the sins, and have been made new creatures in Jesus Christ, should participate in different actions to those recommended by the divine Word of God (Hebrew 6:4-9; 10:26,27). Therefore, all the members are exhorted to, volunteer and freely respond to the call of their government, in time of peace or of war, and to lend service in all the capacities but not in combat. The doctrine teaches us to pray so we always have men of God as the rulers, and to pray for them so they are always guided with divinity, and so like nations, we are kept out of the war, with honor, and live in peace continuously (1 Timothy 2:1-3).

Economic system of the Church.

We believe that the system that the Bible teaches for the obtaining of necessary funds for the compliance of the mission of the Church is of tithes and tributes, and it should be practiced for ministers and church members as well. (Genesis 28:22; Malachi 3:10; Math 23:23; Lucas 6:38; Acts 11:27-30; 1 Corinthian 9:3-15; 16:1,2; 2 Corinthian 8:1-16; 9:6-12; 11:7-9; Galatians 6:6-10; Philippians 4:10-12; 15-19; 1 Timothy 5:17,18; Hebrew 13:16). Knowing that the Work of God does not only have the spiritual aspect, but also the material, we believe that is necessary to regulate the way in which they be acquired and they distribute the necessary funds to respond to the material needs of the Work.

The Ministerial Body.

We believe that for the performance of the official department of the Church. We also believe God calls each person, and the Holy Spirit gives each minister the faculty to serve the Church in different capacities and with different gifts, whose demonstrations are all for building of the body of Christ (Roman 12:6-8; 1 Corinthian 12:5-11; Ephesians 4:11,12). We believe, also, that although the calling to the department is of divine origin, the Word of God contains sufficient teachings on the requirements that should fill the person that is going to serve in the department; and the corresponds to the ecclesiastical governments organized to examine the candidates on the department and to determine when they are worthy of approval, and the task to which they will dedicate (Acts 1:23-26; 6:1-3; 1 Timothy 3:1-10; 4:14; Titus 1:5-9). We believe that the Holy Spirit uses the minister in different forms, according to the needs of the work of God and the capacity and personal disposition of the minister. Nobody can be placed in a higher position than the one deserving (Roman 12:3; 1 Timothy 3:13). We believe that the bishopric is the highest charge in the department, and that to whom they occupy should show them special considerations and respect, without lessening the ones that occupy positions of smaller responsibility.

Sacraments, Prerogatives and Requests.

Baptism.

We believe in the baptism in water, by submerging and in the name of Jesus Christ, which should be administered by an ordered minister. The baptism should be by the submerging of the person in water, because the death of man to the sin is represented and should be similar to the death of Christ (Roman 6:1-5). It should be in the name of Jesus Christ, because this is the form in which the apostles and ministers baptized in the primitive age of the Church, according to the Sacred Writings (Acts 2:38; 8:16; 10:48; 19:5; 22:16).

Communion.

We believe in practicing the literal Supper of the Lord, that he instituted himself. (he Math 26:26-29; Marks 14:22-25; Luke 22:15-20; 1 Corinthians 11:22-31). In this ordinance bread without yeast should be used, that represents the body without sin of our Lord Jesus Christ, and wine without fermenting, that represents the blood of Christ, that consummated our redemption. The reason for this ceremony is to remember the death of our Lord Jesus Christ and to announce that one day he will return to the world, and at the same time it give testimony of the communion that exists among the believers. Any person should not participate of this act if they are not a faithful member of the Church and is in full communion, therefore upon doing it without complying these conditions, will not be able to discern the body of the Lord(1 Corinthians 10:15-17; 11: 27.28; 2 Corinthians 13:5). The Lord, upon finishing taking the supper with his apostles celebrated an act that for the time being amazed them, and that was the lavatory of feet. Upon finishing this act, the teacher explained his disciples the meaning of him, and recommended that they washed each other's feet. The Church practices this act in combination with the Supper of the Lord or indistinctly, like an act of humbleness and Christian friendship. (1 Timothy 5:10).

Marriage

We believe that marriage is sacred, for it was established since the beginning and is honorable to all (Genesis 2:21-24; Math 19:1-5; Hebrews 13:4). The marriages should be verified according to the Bible, and the couples that are not married whom desire to be baptized, should comply with this requirement.

We believe that the marriage is the union of a man and a woman, declared as male or female at birth and should last while both spouses live. If any one of them shall die, the other is free to get married and he/she will not sin if it is done in the Lord (Roman 7:1-3; 1 Corinthians 7:39).

We also believe that marriages should be established exclusively among the faithful members. No minister should marry a member of the church with a non believer. Any members that being in full communion marry a non believer should be carried to judgment by their pastors.

Divine Healing.

We believe that God has the power to heal all the illnesses, if that is His will, and the divine healing is a result of the sacrifice of Christ when he carried our illnesses and suffered our pains (Isaiah 53:4). The healing is completed by the combination of the faith of the believer and the power of the name of Jesus Christ, when it is invoked on the sick. Jesus our Lord promised that the ones who believe in his name, can put the hands on the sick and these would heal (Mark 16:18). The sick shall be anointed with oil in the name of Jesus by ordered ministers so that the Lord fulfills his promises (Psalms 103:1-4; Luke 9:1-3; John 14:13; 1 Corinthians 12:9; James 5:14-16).

We believe that divine healing is obtained from faith, and that in the event that some brother may need to submit themselves to the cares of medical science, the others should not criticize him, but consider themselves and avoid condemnation from what they as well approved (Roman 14:22). We recommend that the members and ministers abstain from making unnecessary criticisms to medical science, whose advancements nobody can deny, and that they are originated in the ability that God has given men to discover the secrets of the operation of the human system. At the same time, we exhort them not to oppose themselves to the campaigns of hygiene, vaccination and cleaning that are initiated by the government, but, on the contrary, to collaborate determined in the places wherever possible.

Holiness.

We believe that all the members of the body of Christ should be saints, that is to say, separation of the sin and consecrated to the service of God. By this reason they should be abstained to practice all types of unhealthy diversions and filth of flesh and of spirit (Leviticus 19:2; 2 Corinthians 7:1; Ephesians 5:26,27; 1 Thessalonians 4:3,4; 2 Timothy 2:21; Hebrew 12:14; 1 Pedro 1:16). Nevertheless, in practice of the holiness, we believe that should be avoided all types of extremisms, asceticism and hardships that have "...things which are a mere shadow of what is to come; but the substance belongs to Christ." (Colossians 2:17, 23). As for food, knowing that "For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with gratitude;" (1 Timothy 4:4).

They Sin of Death.

We believe, in light of the Word of God, and that there is a sin of death to which if this is committed in the terms that the Bible expresses, the right to the salvation is lost (Math 12:31,32; Roman 6:23; Hebrew 10:26,27; 1 John 5:16,17). Therefore, we recommend that all the faithful abstain to give ear to doctrines in which eternal security is promised to the Christian without giving importance to their conduct. The idea that "once saved, always saved", is opposed in the Bible, because it teaches that is possible to be reproached and is needed to be faithful till the end (Roman 2:6-10; 1 Corinthians 9:26,27).

Eschatology.

Resurrection of the Just and Unjust.

We believe that there will be a literal resurrection of the dead people in the Lord, in which they will be transformed to a body glorified and spiritual, with which they will live forever in the presence of the Lord (Job 19:25-27; Psalms 17:15; Juan 5:29; Acts 24:15; 1 Corinthians 15:35-54; 1 Thessalonians 4:16). The Christians that are alive just as the Lord picks up his Church, likewise, will be transformed and will be with the Lord in glory forever. (1 Corinthians 15:51,52; 1 Thessalonians 4:18). We believe also, that there will be resurrection of the unjust, but these will awake of the dream of the tomb to be judged and hear the sentence that will make them heirs of the eternal fire (Daniel 12:2; Math 25:26; Marks 9:44; John 5:29; Rev. 20:12-15).

Recognition of the Church and the Millennium.

We believe that the Church composed of the dead people in the Lord and the faithful that are on land will be raised to be going to find their Lord in the air and to participate in the marriage of the Lamb at the moment of the abduction. Later it will come with the Lord to the land to do the judgment of the nations and to reign with Christ a thousand years. This period will be preceded by the great tribulation and the battle of the Armageddon, to which will give end to the Lord when he descends on the mount of the Olives with all his saints (Isaiah 65:17-25; Daniel 7:27; Micah 4:1-3; Zacharias 14:1-6; Math 5:5; Romans 11:25-27; 1 Corinthians 15:51-54; Philippians 3:20,21; 1 Thessalonians 4:13-17; Rev 20:1-5).

Final judgment.

We believe that there is a judgment prepared in which all the men that have died without Christ and the ones that are on land in the time of their verification will participate in. This judgment will be performed in the end of the Millennium and also is known as the Judgment of the White Throne. The Church will not be judged in this occasion, but it will intervene in the judgment that will be done to all the men according to the writings in the books that God has prepared. Upon being finishing this judgment, the skies and the land that exist today will be renewed by fire and the faithful will inhabit in the New Jerusalem. The Christian era will be finished and then God will be all the things in everyone again. (Daniel 7:8-10, 14-18; 1 Corinthian 6:2,3; Roman 2:16; 14:10; Rev 20:11-15; 21:1-6).

9.02. Inspection and Copying. Any (if corporation has members, add: member,) director, officer, or committee member of the Corporation may inspect and receive copies of all books and records of the Corporation required to be kept by the bylaws. Such a person may inspect or receive copies if the person has a proper purpose related to the person's interest in the Corporation and if the person submits a request in writing. Any person entitled to inspect and copy the Corporation's books and records may do so through his or her attorney or other duly authorized representative. A person entitled to inspect the Corporation's books and records may do so at a reasonable time no later than five working days after the Corporation's receipt of a proper written request. The Board of Directors may establish reasonable fees for copying the Corporation's books and records by members. The fees may cover the cost of materials and labor, but may not exceed twenty cents per page. The Corporation shall provide requested copies of books or records no later than five working days after the Corporation's receipt of a proper written request.

ARTICLE 10-INDEMNIFICATION

a The Corporation shall indemnify a director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Corporation who was, is or may be named defendant or respondent in any proceeding as a result of his or her actions or omissions within the scope of his or her official capacity in the Corporation. For the purposes of this article, an agent includes one who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise. However, the Corporation shall indemnify a person only if he or she acted in good faith and reasonably believed that the conduct was in the Corporation's best interests. In a case of a criminal proceeding, the person may be indemnified only if he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful. The Corporation shall not indemnify a person who is found liable to the Corporation or is found liable to another on the basis of improperly receiving a personal benefit. A person is conclusively considered to have been found liable in relation to any claim, issue, or matter if the person has been adjudged liable by a court of competent jurisdiction and all appeals have been exhausted.

(b) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or in a plea to contend or its equivalent does not necessarily preclude indemnification by the Corporation.

(c) The Corporation shall pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Corporation in connection with the person's appearance as a witness or other participation in a proceeding involving or affecting the Corporation when the person is not a named defendant or respondent in the proceeding.

(d) In addition to the situations otherwise described in this paragraph, the Corporation may indemnify a director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Corporation, to the extent permitted by law. However, the Corporation shall not indemnify any person in any situation in which indemnification is prohibited by the terms of paragraph 10.01(a), above.

(e) Before the final disposition of a proceeding, the Corporation may pay indemnification expenses permitted by the bylaws and authorized by the Corporation. However, the Corporation shall not pay indemnification expenses to a person before the final disposition of a proceeding if: the person is named defendant or respondent in a proceeding brought by the Corporation or the person is alleged to have improperly received a personal benefit or committed other willful or intentional misconduct.

(f) If the Corporation may indemnify a person under the bylaws, the person may be indemnified against judgments, penalties, including excise and similar taxes, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses (including attorney's fees) actually incurred in connection with the proceeding. However, if the proceeding was brought by or on behalf of the Corporation, the indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding.

10.02. Procedures Relating to Indemnification Payments. (a) Before the Corporation may pay any indemnification expenses (including attorney's fees), the Corporation shall specifically determine that indemnification is permissible, authorize indemnification, and determine that expenses to be reimbursed are reasonable, except as provided in paragraph 10.02(c), below. The Corporation may make these determinations and decisions by any one of the following procedures:

(i) Majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who, at the time of the vote, are not named defendants or respondents in the proceeding.

(ii) If such a quorum cannot be obtained, by a majority vote of a committee of the Board of Directors, designated to act in the matter by a majority vote of all directors, consisting solely of two or more directors who at the time of the vote are not named defendants or respondents in the proceeding.

(iii) Determination by special legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors by vote as provided in paragraph 10.02(a)(i) or 10.02(a)(ii), or if such a quorum cannot be obtained and such a committee cannot be established, by a majority vote of the directors.

(iv) (If Corporation has members, add: Majority vote of members, excluding directors who are named defendants or respondents in the proceeding.)

(b) The Corporation shall authorize indemnification and determine that expenses to be reimbursed are reasonable in the same manner that it determines whether indemnification is permissible. If the determination that indemnification is permissible is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and determination of reasonableness of expense shall be made in the manner specified by paragraph 10.02(a)(iii), above, governing the selection of special legal counsel. A provision contained in the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or a resolution of members of the Board of Directors that requires the indemnification permitted by paragraph 10.01, above, constitutes sufficient authorization of indemnification even though the provision may not have been adopted or authorized in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible.

(c) The Corporation shall pay indemnification expenses before final disposition of a proceeding only after the Corporation determines that the facts then known would not preclude indemnification and the Corporation receives a written affirmation and undertaking from the person to be indemnified. The determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification and authorization of payment shall be made in the same manner as a determination that indemnification is permissible under paragraph 10.02(a), above. The person's written affirmation shall state that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under the bylaws. The written undertaking shall provide for repayment of the amount paid or reimbursed by the Corporation if it is ultimately determined that the person has not met the requirements for indemnification. The undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the person, but it need not be secured and it may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

{(d) If corporation has members, add: Any indemnification or advance of expenses shall be reported in writing to the members of the Corporation. The report shall be made with or before the notice or waiver of notice of the next membership meeting, or with or before the next submission to members of a consent to action without a meeting. In any case, the report shall be sent within the 12-month period immediately following the date of the indemnification.]

ARTICLE 11 - NOTICES

11.01. Notice of Mail or Fax. Any notice required or permitted by the bylaws to be given to a (if applicable, add; member,) director, officer, or member of a committee of the Corporation may be given by mail or fax transmission. If mailed, a notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the person at his or her address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage prepaid. If given by telegram, a notice shall be deemed to be delivered when accepted by the telegraph company and addressed to the person at his or her address as it appears on the records of the Corporation. A person may change his or her address by giving written notice to the secretary of the Corporation.

11.02. Signed Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the Act or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, a waiver in writing signed by a person entitled to receive a notice shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of the notice. A waiver of notice shall be effective whether signed before or after the time stated in the notice being waived.

11.03. Waiver of Notice by Attendance. The attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting unless the person attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

ARTICLE 12 - SPECIAL PROCEDURES CONCERNING MEETINGS

12.01. Meeting by Telephone. The (if desired, add: members). Board of Directors, and any committee of the Corporation may (if desired, add; not) hold a meeting by telephone conference-call procedures (if meeting by telephone is permitted, add: in which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. the notice of a meeting by telephone conference must state the fact that the meeting will be held by telephone as well as all other matter required to be included in the notice. Participation of a person in a conference-call meeting constitutes presence of that person at the meeting.)

12.02. Decision Without Meeting. Any decision required or permitted to be made at a meeting of the (if desired, add: members,) Board of Directors, or any committee of the Corporation may be made without a meeting. A decision without a meeting may be made if a written consent to the decision is signed by all of the persons entitled to vote on the matter. The original signed consents shall be placed in the Corporation minute book and kept with the Corporation's records.

12.03. Voting by Proxy. A person who is authorized to exercise a proxy may not exercise the proxy unless the proxy is delivered to the officer residing at the meeting before the business of the meeting begins. The secretary or other person taking the minutes of the meeting shall record in the minutes the name of the person who executed the proxy and the name of the person authorized to exercise the proxy. If a person who has duly executed a proxy personally attends a meeting, the proxy shall not be effective for that meeting. A proxy filed with the secretary or other designated officer shall remain in force and effect until the first of the following occurs:

- (a) An instrument revoking the proxy is delivered to the secretary or other designated officer.
- (b) The proxy authority expires under the terms of the proxy.
- (c) The proxy authority expires under the terms of the Bylaws.
