PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Pima County is committed to prioritizing the health and quality of life of our constituents through prevention, partnership, surveillance, and response in alignment with national efforts to address public health challenges; and

WHEREAS, for more than 30 years during the first full week of April, the American Public Health Association has been unifying communities through the development of national campaigns to educate the public about improving their health; and

WHEREAS, the resilience of public health systems, bolstered by a dedicated workforce, is essential for adapting to emerging health challenges, safeguarding public health, and ensuring a sustainable healthcare future for all; and

WHEREAS, public health workers in states and communities across the country play a crucial role in ensuring that everyone can be healthy individuals living in healthy communities in a healthy world; and

WHEREAS, public health professionals strive to ensure equitable access to healthcare and work to reduce health disparities, ensuring that all individuals, regardless of background, can live healthy lives in thriving communities; and

WHEREAS, acknowledging that public health activities protect communities from infectious diseases, environmental health threats, workplace hazards, chronic diseases, unintentional injuries, and violence; and

WHEREAS, the aid provided by public health workers in times of natural disasters and other catastrophic events merits recognition.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Pima County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims the week of April 6 through April 12, 2026, to be:

"NATIONAL PUBLIC HEALTH WEEK" and calls upon all federal, state, and local public health agencies, private organizations, educational institutions, and business and community leaders, to unite in efforts to celebrate, engage, and promote public health initiatives that empower our communities and foster a healthier future for all.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 7th day of April 2026.

The Honorable Jennifer Allen, Chair
Pima County Board of Supervisors

ATTEST:

Melissa Manriquez, Clerk
Pima County Board of Supervisors
