Re: Agenda Item for March 3, 2026 Meeting

From: Rex Scott
District 1 Supervisor
Pima County Board of Supervisors

---

Please place the following item on the agenda for the Board of Supervisors meeting March 3, 2026.

Proclamation-Urity of Tucson Day of Pima County

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Unity of Tucson has served the Tucson community since 1956 as a welcoming and inclusive spiritual home focused on personal growth, compassion, and positive living; and

WHEREAS, for seventy years Unity of Tucson has offered spiritual education, prayer, service, and community connection that uplifts individuals and strengthens Pima County; and

WHEREAS, the ministry has demonstrated steadfast commitment to unity, diversity, and social responsibility by fostering cooperation, interfaith dialogue, and service to those in need in Pima County; and

WHEREAS, Unity of Tucson continues to inspire people of all backgrounds to live with purpose, kindness, and a deep sense of connection to one another; and

WHEREAS, this 70th anniversary marks not only a milestone of longevity, but also a celebration of enduring vision, devoted leadership, and generations of members and friends who have sustained and grown this spiritual community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Pima County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims Saturday, March 14, 2026, to be:

“UNITY OF TUCSON DAY IN PIMA COUNTY”

and recognizes and celebrates Unity of Tucson on the occasion of its 70th anniversary and for its longstanding service and commitment to unity, diversity, inclusivity, and social responsibility throughout Pima County.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 3rd day of March 2026.
