Agenda Item Report

Introduction / Background:	Mr. Ivan Allison leaves behind a 30-year legacy supporting sports, recreation and community service. In 1996, Mr. Allison along with Chuck Catino created the Born Again Jocks Association (BAJA) organization. Mr. Allison wrote the initial bylaws and was heavily involved in fundraising efforts including negotiating donation of land from FICO that assisted in construction of the initial two softball fields at Canoa Preserve Park. In addition to championing sports and recreation in Green Valley the BAJA organization has further strengthened its reach in the community by offering to assist the Green Valley area with community service efforts by its membership. Pima County especially Green Valley residents have benefited from Mr. Allison's legacy and life work.
Discussion:	On January 23, 2026, the Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission voted unanimously to name field 1 at Canoa Preserve Park, Ivan Allison Field.
Conclusion:	Mr. Allison leaves behind a monumental 30 year legacy supporting sports, recreation and community service. The PR Advisory Commission recognized his impact to the senior community in Pima County and endorse the naming effort.
Recommendation:	BOS approve the naming of Canoa Preserve Park field #1, Ivan Allison Field.
Fiscal Impact:	Approximately $100.
